

application that are labeled on or after January 1, 2010), because the agency was still in the process of finalizing the guidance. The agency has now completed its review and evaluation of the comments received and has modified the guidance where appropriate.

The document provides guidance to industry on the following topics: (1) The meaning of "domestic address" for purposes of the labeling requirements of section 502(x) of the act; (2) FDA's recommendation for the use of an introductory statement before the domestic address or domestic telephone number that is required to appear on the product labeling under section 502(x) of the act (21 U.S.C. 352(x)); and (3) that FDA intends to begin enforcing the labeling requirements of section 502(x) of the act for products labeled on or after September 30, 2010.

This guidance is being issued consistent with FDA's good guidance practices regulation (21 CFR 10.115). The guidance represents the agency's current thinking on this topic. It does not create or confer any rights for or on any person and does not operate to bind FDA or the public. An alternative approach may be used if such approach satisfies the requirement of the applicable statutes and regulations.

II. Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995

This guidance contains information collection provisions that are subject to review by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501–3520). The collections of information in this guidance were approved under OMB control no. 0190–0640.

III. Comments

Interested persons may submit to the Division of Dockets Management (see ADDRESSES) written or electronic comments regarding the guidance. Submit a single copy of electronic comments or two paper copies of any mailed comments, except that individuals may submit one paper copy. Comments are to be identified with the docket number found in brackets in the heading of this document. Received comments are available for public examination in the Division of Dockets Management between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.
