

KPC states that the purpose of the filing is to comply with the Commission's Order issued on October 31, 2002 in Docket No. RM98-10-011 wherein the Commission ordered all pipelines, that were required to offer segmentation, to file revised tariff sheets to expressly permit segmented transactions consisting of forwardhauls up to contract demand and backhauls up to contract demand to the same point at the same time. Additionally, in the same Order, the Commission removed the five (5) year term matching cap for the right of first refusal. KPC states that the instant filing complies with the Commission's Order.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. #### Northern Border Pipeline Company; Notice of Compliance Filing

December 18, 2002.

Take notice that on December 13, 2002, Northern Border Pipeline Company (Northern Border) tendered for filing to become part of its FERC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1, Fourth Revised Sheet No. 120, and Original Sheet No. 120A, to become effective January 15, 2003.

Northern Border states that the purpose of this filing is to comply with the Commission's order at Docket No. RP03-16-000, dated November 26, 2002 (101 FERC 61,249), wherein the Commission directed Northern Border to revise Northern Border's FERC Gas Tariff to state clearly the timing of Northern Border's ROFR process when there are no acceptable third party bids and also clarify the procedures taken when the ROFR process is completed and there has been no award of capacity.

Northern Border states that copies of this filing have been sent to all of Northern Border's contracted shippers and interested state regulatory commissions.

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Section 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings.
