[Docket No. RM05-1-000]

Regulations Governing the Conduct of Open Seasons for Alaska Natural Gas Transportation Projects; Notice of Rulemaking Schedule

October 26, 2004.

Section 103(e) of the Alaska Natural Gas Pipeline Act of 2004, enacted into law on October 13, 2004, requires the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission to issue regulations governing the conduct of open seasons for Alaska natural gas transportation projects, as defined in that legislation, within 120 days of enactment, that is, by February 10, 2005. The Commission proposes the following tentative schedule for issuing the required regulations:

November 18, 2004—Commission issues Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, including draft of proposed regulations.

December 6–10, 2004 (exact date to be announced)—One-day public technical conference at a site to be determined in Alaska, to receive public comment on the proposed regulations.

December 17, 2004—Written comments due on Notice of Proposed Rulemaking.

February 9, 2005—Commission issues final rule.

The Commission will provide further public notice of the details of the rulemaking proceeding, including the date and location of the technical conference. For information about this proceeding, interested persons may go to the e-Library link at the Commission's Web site, <http://www.ferc.gov>, and search under the docket number for this proceeding, Docket No. RM05-1. Any questions or comments about this proposed schedule may be directed to: Edwin Holden, 202-502-8089, or Edwin.Holden@ferc.gov.

[Docket Nos. CP03-353-001 and CP03-355-001]

Eastern American Energy Corporation; Notice of Filing

October 27, 2004.

Take notice that on September 8, 2004, Eastern American Energy Corporation (Eastern) filed a Service Agreement between Eastern and Mountaineer Gas Company establishing Eastern's initial rate as a special rate schedule under Section 154.112(a) of the Commission's regulations. Eastern states that the filing is intended to comply with the filing requirement ordered in the Commission's March 25, 2004 Order in Docket Nos. CP03-353-000 and CP03-355-000, 106 FERC ¶ 61,297.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed in accordance with the provisions of Section 154.210 of the Commission's regulations (18 CFR 154.210). Anyone filing an intervention or protest must serve a copy of that document on the Applicant. Anyone filing an intervention or protest on or before the intervention or protest date need not serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

This filing is accessible on-line at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the "eLibrary" link and is available for review in the Commission's Public Reference Room in Washington, DC. There is an "eSubscription" link on the web site that enables subscribers to receive e-mail notification when a document is added to a subscribed docket(s). For assistance with any FERC Online service, please e-mail FERCOnlineSupport@ferc.gov, or call (866) 208-3676 (toll free). For TTY, call (202) 502-8659.
