Statutory Time Limits

Section 733(b)(1)(A) of the Act, requires the Department of Commerce (the Department) to issue the preliminary determination of an antidumping duty investigation within 140 days after the date of initiation. However, if the petitioner makes a timely request for an extension of the period and additional time is necessary to make the preliminary determination, section 733(c)(1)(A) of the Act allows the Department to extend the time limit for the preliminary determination until not later than 190 days after the date of initiation.

Background

On April 2, 2001, the Department initiated an antidumping duty investigation of live processed blue mussels from Canada. See Notice of Initiation of Antidumping Investigation: Live Processed Blue Mussels From Canada, 66 FR 18227 (April 6, 2001). The notice stated that the Department would issue its preliminary determination no later than 140 days after the date of initiation. The preliminary determination currently is due no later than August 20, 2001.

Extension of Preliminary Determination

On June 29, 2001, the Department received a request for postponement of the preliminary determination from Great Eastern Mussels Farms, Inc., (hereinafter, the petitioner), in accordance with section 733(c)(1)(A) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.205(e). There are no compelling reasons for the Department to deny the petitioner's request. Therefore, pursuant to section 733(c)(1)(A) of the Act, the Department is postponing the deadline for issuing this determination until October 9, 2001.

This notice of postponement is in accordance with section 733(c)(2) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.205(f).
