

answer questions concerning infectious disease risks associated with the importation, sale, and distribution of exotic animals. Participants must limit their presentations to the issue of exotic animal importation, sale, and distribution.

4. All interested parties will have the opportunity to present any information on the topic they want to be available to CDC and other Federal partners. The CDC and other federal partners will then have the opportunity to explain the methodology and technical assumptions supporting its current observations.

5. Federal staff, representatives from public health and veterinary organizations, and public participants may engage in a full discussion of all technical material presented at the meeting. Anyone presenting conclusions will be expected to submit their supporting data to the CDC.

6. The CDC will try to accommodate all speakers. A maximum of 15 minutes will be allowed for each speaker. Time may be additionally limited for each presentation, depending on the number of speakers.

7. Sign interpretations will be made available at the meeting, including assistive listening devices, if requested 15 calendar days before the meeting.

8. Proceedings of the meeting will be recorded and a summary will be posted in the Federal Register.

9. The CDC will review and consider all material presented by participants at the public meeting. Position papers or material presenting views or information related to the subject of the meeting may be accepted. The CDC requests that persons participating in the meeting provide 10 copies of all materials to be presented for distribution to the panel members; other copies may be provided to the audience at the discretion of the participant.

10. Statements made by CDC personnel and other federal personnel are intended to facilitate discussion of the issues or to clarify issues. Such statements should not be interpreted as providing legal, professional, or other advice.

11. The meeting is designed to share information and solicit individual views from the public and additional information. The meeting will not operate in consensus fashion. The meeting will be conducted in an informal and non-adversarial manner. All statements submitted during the meeting will be considered part of the public record.

BILLING CODE 4160-18-M

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Administration for Children and Families

Family Violence Prevention and Services/Grants for Battered Women's Shelters/Grants to Native American Tribes (Including Alaska Native Villages) and Tribal Organizations

Program Office: Administration on Children, Youth, and Families (ACYF), Family and Youth Services Bureau (FYSB).

Program Announcement Number: HHS-2006-ACF-ACYF-FVPS-0124.

CFDA Number: 93.671.

Due Date for Applications: May 22, 2006.

Executive Summary: This announcement governs the proposed award of formula grants under the Family Violence Prevention and Services Act (FVPSA) to Native American Tribes (including Alaska Native Villages) and Tribal organizations. The purpose of these grants is to assist Tribes in establishing, maintaining, and expanding programs and projects to prevent family violence and to provide immediate shelter and related assistance for victims of family violence and their dependents.

This announcement sets forth the application requirements, the application process, and other administrative and fiscal requirements for grants in Fiscal Year (FY) 2006. Grantees are to be mindful that although the expenditure period for grants is a two-year period, an application is required every year to provide continuity in the provision of services. (See Section II. Award Information, Expenditure Periods.)

I. Description

Legislative Authority: Title III of the Child Abuse Amendments of 1984 (Public Law (Pub. L.) 98-457, 42 U.S.C. 10401 et seq.) is entitled the "Family Violence Prevention and Services Act" (FVPSA). FVPSA was first implemented in FY 1986. The statute was subsequently amended by Public Law 100-294, the "Child Abuse Prevention, Adoptions, and Family Services Act of 1988;" further amended in 1992 by Public Law 102-295; and then amended in 1994 by Public Law 103-322, the "Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act." FVPSA was amended again in 1996 by Public Law 104-235, the "Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act (CAPTA) of 1996"; in 2000 by Public Law 106-386, the "Victims of Trafficking and Violence Protection Act," and amended further by Public Law 108-36, the "Keeping Children and Families Safe Act of 2003." FVPSA was most recently amended by Public Law 109-162, the "Violence Against Women and Department of Justice Reauthorization Act of 2005."

Background

The purpose of this legislation is to assist States and Tribes or Tribal organizations in supporting the establishment, maintenance, and expansion of programs and projects to prevent incidents of family violence and to provide immediate shelter and related assistance for victims of family violence and their dependents.
