

above proposal are influenced by these robust market forces and therefore must remain competitive with fees charged and rebates paid by other venues and therefore must continue to be reasonable and equitably allocated to those members that opt to direct orders to the Exchange rather than competing venues.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

No written comments were either solicited or received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

The foregoing rule change has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act.¹⁶ At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. If the Commission takes such action, the Commission shall institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule should be approved or disapproved.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:

Electronic Comments

- Use the Commission's Internet comment form (<http://www.sec.gov/rules/sro.shtml>); or
- Send an email to rule-comments@sec.gov. Please include File Number SR-Phlx-2014-31 on the subject line.

Paper Comments

- Send paper comments in triplicate to Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 100 F Street NE., Washington, DC 20549-1090. All submissions should refer to File Number SR-Phlx-2014-31. This file number should be included on the subject line if email is used. To help the Commission process and review your comments more efficiently, please use only one method. The Commission will post all comments on the Commission's Internet Web site (<http://www.sec.gov/rules/sro.shtml>). Copies of the submission, all subsequent amendments, all written statements with respect to the proposed rule change that are filed with the Commission, and all written communications relating to the proposed rule change between the Commission and any person, other than those that may be withheld from the public in accordance with the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552, will be available for Web site viewing and printing in the Commission's Public Reference Room, 100 F Street NE., Washington, DC 20549, on official business days between the hours of 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. Copies of such filing also will be available for inspection and copying at the principal offices of the Exchange. All comments received will be posted without change; the Commission does not edit personal identifying information from submissions. You should submit only information that you wish to make available publicly. All submissions should refer to File Number SR-Phlx-2014-31, and should be submitted on or before June 5, 2014.

For the Commission, by the Division of Trading and Markets, pursuant to delegated authority.¹⁷

Kevin M. O'Neill,
Deputy Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE

[Delegation of Authority: 372]

Delegation Authorities and Functions Involving Administration of Department of State Personnel

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Secretary of State in Delegation of Authority 148–1, dated September 9, 1981, and Delegation of Authority 198, dated September 16, 1992:

1. General Delegation to the Director General of the Foreign Service and Director of Human Resources

a. I hereby delegate to the Director General of the Foreign Service and Director of Human Resources (hereinafter, “the Director General”), the authority to prescribe regulations arising under the Foreign Service Act of 1980, as amended, the Civil Service Reform Act, and any other laws administered by or relating to the Bureau of Human Resources;

b. In accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 302 and Section 206 of the Foreign Service Act of 1980 (22 U.S.C. § 3926), as amended, I further delegate to the Director General, to the extent consistent with law, all human resources functions and authorities under Title 5 of the U.S. Code, the Foreign Service Act of 1980, and any other rules, regulations and laws pertaining to the employment, direction and general administration of personnel of the Department of State (“Department”) that are now delegated, or in the future may be delegated, to the Under Secretary for Management.

2. Specific Delegations to the Director General

In addition to the general delegation included in Section 1, I hereby delegate to the Director General, to the extent consistent with law, the functions and authorities specified in the following statutes:

a. Section 606(a)(5) of the Foreign Relations Authorization Act, 2000 and 2001, as enacted in Public Law 106–113 (relating to the development of annual physical fitness standards for Diplomatic Security agents and evaluation of training programs), in consultation with the Assistant Secretary for Diplomatic Security.

c. 22 U.S.C. § 4823 (relating to recruitment and hiring of women and members of minority groups, and qualifications for assignment or appointment of Diplomatic Security agents, including age restrictions and other physical standards), in consultation with the Assistant Secretary of Diplomatic Security.

d. 5 U.S.C. § 5596 (relating to findings, resolution of claims, and other actions under the Back Pay Act), in consultation with the Office of the Legal Adviser.

3. Delegations Revoked

This Delegation of Authority supersedes any prior delegation on this subject to the extent such delegation may be inconsistent herewith. The following delegations of authority are expressly revoked:

(1) Delegation of Authority 221–8 dated December 15, 2005;

(2) Two documents both designated as “Delegation of Authority 221–9,” dated June 14, 2011 and November 8, 2011.

4. Technical Provisions

(a) Notwithstanding any provisions of this Delegation of Authority, the Secretary, Deputy Secretary, Deputy Secretary for Management and Resources, or the Under Secretary for Management may at any time exercise the functions herein delegated, and the Director General shall be responsible for referring to the Secretary of State or Under Secretary for Management any matter on which action would appropriately be taken by the Secretary or Under Secretary for Management.

(b) Any actions related to the functions described herein that may have been taken prior to the date of this delegation of authority by the Director General are hereby affirmed and ratified. Such actions shall remain in force as if taken under this delegation of authority, unless or until such actions are rescinded, amended or superseded.

(c) Any act, executive order, regulation, manual or procedure subject to, affected, or incorporated by, this delegation shall be deemed to be such act, executive order, regulation, manual or procedure as amended from time to time.

(d) As used in this delegation of authority, the word “function” includes any duty, obligation, power, authority, responsibility, right, privilege, discretion, or activity.

(e) This authority may be re-delegated.

(f) This delegation shall be published in the Federal Register.
