Abstract of Information Available

Human remains representing, at least, five individuals have been identified. The 15 associated funerary objects are seven bone artifacts and eight lithic artifacts. Lotted associated funerary objects are three lots sorted faunal, lithics, and ceramic artifacts.

Davis Cavern, Carrol County, TN

Commingle human remains representing, at least, three individuals and associated funerary objects consisting of seven bone and eight lithic artifacts were excavated in 1926 from Davis Cavern, an unrecorded site in Carroll County, Tennessee, and curated with the Tennessee State Museum. These remains were transferred to the Division of Archaeology in 1995 and 2017 for repatriation. No information is available on the original archaeological context of these materials. There is no known exposure to hazardous substances or treatments.

Site 40HY13, Henry County, TN

Human remains representing, at least, one individual. The associated funerary objects are three lots of pre-Contact artifacts respectively consisting of faunal, lithics, and ceramics. These remains were identified within in an artifact collection donated to TDEC-TDOA by a private individual. Rat poison pellets observed inside of the box. Ancestral remains have been placed in a muslin bag with flagging tape to identify the exposure to hazardous treatments or substances.

Unknown Site Locations, Henry County, TN

Human remains representing, at least, one individual. The human remains were donated to the Tennessee State Museum by a private individual and transferred to TDEC-DOA for repatriation. No information exists as to the circumstances of original collection. There is no known exposure to hazardous substances or treatments.

Cultural Affiliation

Based on the information available and the results of consultation, cultural affiliation is reasonably identified by the geographical location or acquisition history of the human remains and associated funerary objects described in this notice.

Determinations

The TDEC-DOA has determined that:

- The human remains described in this notice represent the physical remains of at least, five individuals of Native American ancestry.
