DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIORFish and Wildlife Service*50 CFR Part 16

RIN 1018–AG70

Injurious Wildlife Species; Black Carp (Mylopharyngodon piceus)

AGENCY: Fish and Wildlife Service, Interior.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (Service or we) adds all forms of live black carp (Mylopharyngodon piceus), gametes, viable eggs, and hybrids to the list of injurious fish under the Lacey Act. By this action, the Service prohibits the importation into or transportation between the continental United States, the District of Columbia, Hawaii, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or any territory or possession of the United States of live black carp, gametes, viable eggs, and hybrids. The best available information indicates that this action is necessary to protect the interests of wildlife and wildlife resources from the purposeful or accidental introduction and subsequent establishment of black carp in the ecosystems of the United States. Live black carp, gametes, viable eggs, and hybrids can be imported only by permit for scientific, medical, educational, or zoological purposes, or without a permit by Federal agencies solely for their own use. Interstate transportation of live black carp, gametes, viable eggs, and hybrids currently held within the United States will be allowed only by permit. Interstate transportation permits may be issued for scientific, medical, educational, or zoological purposes.

DATES: This rule is effective for all forms of live black carp on November 19, 2007.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:Background

In February 2000, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (Service or we) received a petition from the Mississippi Interstate Cooperative Resources Association (MICRA) to list the black carp (Mylopharyngodon piceus) under the injurious wildlife provision of the Lacey Act (18 U.S.C. 42). The petition was based upon concerns about the potential impacts of black carp on native freshwater mussels and snails in the Mississippi River basin. In October 2002, the Service received a petition signed by 25 members of Congress representing the Great Lakes region to add black, bighead, and silver carp to the list of injurious wildlife under the Lacey Act. A follow-up letter identified seven additional Legislators who supported the petition.

Summary of Previous Actions

On June 2, 2000, we published in the Federal Register (65 FR 35314) an advance notice of proposed rulemaking (ANPR) to seek comments on whether or not we should propose to list black carp
