Victim and Witness Assistance

AGENCY: Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness (USD(P&R)), DoD.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This final rule adds a part to the Code of Federal Regulations which assists victims and witnesses of alleged crimes committed in violation of the Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ), and discusses the rights of crime victims under the UCMJ which are more extensive than those of witnesses. The rule also describes notification and assistance available to victims and witnesses of crime from initial contact with the local responsible official, law enforcement officer, or criminal investigation officer through the investigation of the crime and the prosecution, acquittal or confinement, and release of the accused. Finally, the rule includes annual reporting requirements for assistance provided across the DoD to victims of and witnesses to sex-related crime, and legal assistance for sex-related crime victims.

DATES: This rule is effective on May 28, 2020.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Lt Col Ryan A. Hendricks, Office of Legal Policy, 703-571-9301.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The Military Services are required to provide legal counsel, known as Special Victims' Counsel/Victims' Legal Counsel (SVC/VLC), to assist victims of alleged sex-related offenses under Articles 120, 120a, 120b, 120c, and 125 of the UCMJ, to include victims of alleged attempts to commit the enumerated offenses, who are eligible for legal assistance. The Military Services are also required to establish a special victim capability comprised of specially trained criminal investigators, judge advocates, paralegals, and victim/witness assistance personnel to support victims of covered special victim offenses. To de-conflict with victims' counsel programs, this distinct group of recognizable professionals will be referred to, at the DoD level, as the "Special Victim Investigation and Prosecution (SVIP)" capability.

Authority

This rule implements all of the following requirements under law: 10 U.S.C. chapter 47, the UCMJ; 10 U.S.C. 1034, 1044, 1044e 1058, 1059, and 1408; 18 U.S.C. 1514; and section 573 of Public Law 112-239, requiring the Military Services to establish a special victim capability comprised of specially trained investigators, judge advocates, paralegals, and victim witness assistance personnel to support victims of covered alleged offenses. Sections 1701 and 1716 of Public Law 113-66 strengthened the rights of victims of alleged crimes committed under the UCMJ, and provided for the designation of SVC/VLC for victims of covered offenses. Section 533 of Public Law 113-291 extended eligibility for SVC/VLC services to members of a reserve component of the armed forces.

Major Provisions of the Regulatory Action

This rule describes the responsibilities that the USD(P&R), Inspector General of the Department of Defense, and other DoD component heads have when dealing with the procedures described in the regulatory text. The rule also discusses procedures involving local responsible officials, comprehensive information and services to be provided to victims and witnesses, SVIP capability, legal assistance for crime victims, and special victims' counsel programs.

This regulation: (1) Provides a complete victim and witness assistance policy, to ensure the consistent and effective management of DoD victim and witness assistance programs operated by DoD Components. The final rule implements statutory requirements for the DoD victim assistance programs. It revises the rights for crime victims of alleged offenses committed under the UCMJ, requires the Military Services to create enforcement mechanisms, provides for legal assistance for crime victims entitled to legal services, requires that Military Services provide SVC/VLC to assist victims of covered alleged offenses, and further implements the SVIP capability, which provides enhanced support to victims of sexual assault, serious domestic violence, and child abuse alleged offenses. VWAP provides guidance for assisting victims and witnesses of alleged crimes from initial contact through investigation, prosecution, confinement, and release, until the victim specifies to the local responsible official that he or she no longer requires or desires services. Particular attention is paid to victims of serious and violent alleged crimes, including child abuse, domestic violence, and sexual assault.

(2) Strengthens the rights of crime victims in the military justice system and requires the establishment mechanisms for enforcement of these rights in each Military Department, in accordance with section 1701 of Public Law 113-66. These provisions ensure victims have a right to be reasonably heard at public hearings concerning the continuation of confinement before the trial of the accused, preliminary hearings under section 832 (Article 32) of the UCMJ, and court-martial proceedings relating to the Military Rules of Evidence (M.R.E.) 412, 513, and 514 of the Manual for Courts-Martial (MCM) (available at <http://www.apd.army.mil/pdffiles/mcm.pdf>) and that all victims are treated with fairness and respect for their dignity and privacy.

(3) Orients victims and witnesses to the military justice system, about the military criminal justice process, on the role of the victim or witness in the process, and how the victim or witness can obtain additional information concerning the process and the case.

(4) Provides for timely notification of information and assistance available to victims and witnesses of alleged crimes from initial contact through investigation, prosecution, and confinement.

(5) Enables victims to confer with the attorney for the U.S. Government in the case before preliminary and trial proceedings, and to express their views to the commander or convening authority as to disposition of the case.

(6) Assists victims with prompt return of personal property held as evidence during a military criminal investigation and court-martial.

(7) Provides eligible victims and military families with access to transitional compensation in accordance with Federal law and 32 CFR part 111, "Transitional Compensation for Abused Dependents." Internal DoD policy related to that program is contained in DoD Instruction 1342.24 of the same name (available at <http://www.esd.whs.mil/Portals/54/Documents/DD/issuances/dodi/134224p.pdf>).

(8) Ensures victims are aware of procedures to receive restitution as provided in accordance with State, local, and Federal crime victims' funds, and the procedures for applying for such funds. Restitution may also be available from, or offered by, an accused as a condition in the terms of a pretrial agreement, during the sentencing process, or as a part of post-trial clemency requests under Rule for Courts-Martial 1105, of the MCM. Under Article 139, UCMJ, victims may also be provided with relief if the property loss or damage resulted from wrongful taking or willful damage by a member of the Armed Forces due to riotous, violent, or disorderly conduct.

(9) Mandates compliance with DoD standards for victim assistance services in the military community established in DoD Instruction 6400.07 "Standards for Victim Assistance Services in the Military Community," November 25, 2013, as revised (available at <https://www.esd.whs.mil/Portals/54/Documents/DD/issuances/dodi/640007p.pdf?ver=2018-07-06-073608-400>).

(10) Provides that crime victims who are entitled to military legal assistance under sections 1044 and 1044e of title 10, U.S.C., and as further prescribed by the Military Departments and National Guard Bureau policies, may consult with a military legal assistance attorney.

(11) Provides legal counsel, known as Special Victims' Counsel or Victims' Legal Counsel (SVC/VLC), to assist victims of alleged sex-related offenses in violation of Articles 120, 120a, 120b, 120c, and 125 (before January 1, 2019) of the UCMJ, and attempts to commit any of these offenses under Article 80 of the UCMJ, regardless of whether the report of the offense is restricted or unrestricted. Individuals entitled to

SVC/VLC representation include any of the following:

(a) Individuals eligible for military legal assistance under sections 1044 and 1044e of title 10, U.S.C., and as further prescribed by the Military Departments' and National Guard Bureau policies.

(b) Members of a reserve component of the armed forces, in accordance with section 533 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2015, and as further prescribed by the Military Departments and National Guard Bureau policies.

(12) Establishes a SVIP capability in each Military Service comprised of specially trained criminal investigators, judge advocates, paralegals, and victim and witness assistance personnel to work with specially trained military criminal investigators to support victims of alleged adult sexual assault, domestic violence, and child abuse. To de-conflict with the names of SVC/VLC programs, this distinct group of recognizable professionals will be referred to as SVIP at the DoD level. Ensures SVIP training programs meet established DoD and Military Service standards for special prosecutors, paralegals, VAWP coordinators and providers, and legal support personnel.

(13) Establishes local Victim and Witness Assistance Councils, when practicable, at each military installation, to ensure victim and witness service providers follow an interdisciplinary approach. This will ensure effective coordination between VAWP coordinators and DoD personnel providing related services, including sexual assault prevention and response coordinators, family advocacy personnel, military treatment facility health care providers and emergency room personnel, family service center personnel, chaplains, military equal opportunity personnel, judge advocates, SVC/VLCs, unit commanding officers, corrections personnel, and other persons designated by the Secretaries of the Military Departments.

(14) Maintains annual reporting requirements on assistance provided across the DoD to victims and witnesses of alleged crimes, which will be provided to the Department of Justice Office of Victims of Crime and the Bureau of Justice Statistics.

Comments and Responses

On May 22, 2015, the Department of Defense published a proposed rule titled "Victim and Witness Assistance" (80 FR 29571-29582) for a 60-day public comment period. This section addresses the three public comments received. No changes were made to the rule based on public comment.

Comment: Two respondents argued for extension of legal assistance to civilian victims with no military connection to ensure all victims can enforce their rights in the military justice process, not just those eligible for Special Victims' Counsel/Victims' Legal Counsel (SVC/VLC).

Response: Congress amended 10 U.S.C. 1044e in the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2016 (section 532, Pub. L. 114-92) to specifically authorize Military Departments to provide civilian employees of the Department, who are victims of a sex-related offense, with SVC services. The proposed rule included the eligibility of civilian employees to receive SVC/VLC services at § 114.6, paragraph (d)(i), because they are eligible under 10 U.S.C. 1044e. This content is located in this final rule at § 114.6, paragraph (e)(i) due to the correction of a formatting error in the proposed rule.

Comment: One respondent suggested amending the policy statement in § 114.4, paragraph (c) to require each DoD Component to provide particular attention and support to victims of "serious or violent crimes" instead of "serious, violent crimes." The respondent expressed concern that victims of serious financial crimes suffer grave harm and should be afforded the same basic rights of notification as other violent crimes. The respondent further recommended expressly including stalking as a crime and requested DoD require training on the dynamics and impact of stalking.

Response: The rights of victims and witnesses are generally the same except that sexual assault victims have been granted some additional rights in recent years. Financial crime victims, therefore, have the same rights as other non-sexual assault victims. The list of training requirements is also not exhaustive and stalking could be included within the training on sexual assaults, domestic violence, or in the section on identifying safety concerns and specific needs of a victim. No changes were made to the rule text because the Department believes this rule sets minimum standards and permits the Military Departments some flexibility to tailor training as needed to maximize effectiveness for target populations and locations.

Comment: One respondent called for dedicated Victim-Witness Liaisons (VWLs) in each prosecution office in order to relieve over-burdened prosecutors from VWL duties.

Response: The Department believes the Military Departments are well-suited to determine the best allocation of their resources to fulfill requirements.

Comment: One respondent requested clarification on the interaction between the Freedom of Information Act and the Privacy Act, and specific identification of what documents may be provided to victims.

Response: The comment is too broad and encompasses too many variable possibilities to provide a narrow answer. The Department prioritizes protecting personally identifying information, and/or sensitive personal information. However, the Department shall comply with the established law under both the Freedom of Information Act and the Privacy Act in responding to requests for information related to the former. Additional information about the Department's implementation of the Freedom of Information Act is available at 32 CFR part 286, and its implementation of the Privacy Act is available at 32 CFR part 310.

Comment: One respondent expressed concern that the forms referenced in this policy blur the rights of victims and witnesses and insufficiently distinguish trial rights from those that may exist in administrative forums.

Response: The Department appreciates this feedback on the forms and will consider it when the forms are next revised.

Comment: One respondent requested further guidance on designations of guardians when there are no appropriate family members to be designated.

Response: The Department believes the final rule provides sufficient guidance and considerations for the appropriate designations of guardians. This guidance can be found in § 114.6(c)(11)(ii) of this final rule.

Additional Edits

Following further coordination within the Department of Defense, edits were made to correct citations, clarify provisions, improve the accuracy of the sample letter in Figure 1, and harmonize the rule with the following Department of Defense Forms: DD Form 2701, "Initial Information for Victims and Witnesses of Crime" (available at <https://www.esd.whs.mil/Portals/54/Documents/DD/forms/dd/dd2701.pdf>); DD Form 2702, "Court-Martial Information for Victims and Witnesses of Crime" (available at <https://www.esd.whs.mil/Portals/54/Documents/DD/forms/dd/dd2702.pdf>); DD Form 2703, "Post-Trial Information for Victims and Witnesses of Crime" (available at <https://www.esd.whs.mil/Portals/54/Documents/DD/forms/dd/dd2703.pdf>); DD Form 2704, "Victim/Witness Certification and Election

Concerning Prisoner Status" (available at <https://www.esd.whs.mil/Portals/54/Documents/DD/forms/dd/dd2704.pdf>); DD Form 2704–1, "Victim Election of Post-Trial Rights" (one finalized, will be made available at https://www.esd.whs.mil/Directives/forms/dd2500_2999/); DD Form 2705, "Notification to Victim/Witness of Prisoner Status" (available at <https://www.esd.whs.mil/Portals/54/Documents/DD/forms/dd/dd2705.pdf>); and DD Form 2706, "Annual Report on Victim and Witness Assistance" (available at <https://www.esd.whs.mil/Portals/54/Documents/DD/forms/dd/dd2706.pdf>).

Additional edits to the provision regarding who can assume the rights of a victim who is under 18 years of age, incompetent, incapacitated, or deceased were made to comply with the National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA) for Fiscal Year 2017 (section 5105, Pub. L. 114–328). Previously, NDAA Fiscal Year 2015 language required a military judge to make such a designation even if a civilian judge already made a legal designation, or if there are already legal guardians and no one disputes who should act for the victim. The NDAA Fiscal Year 2017 language removes the requirement of the military judge designation, and § 114.6(c)(11) was edited to remove text relating to the military judge.

Section 114.6(b)(1), "Rights of crime victims," was also amended to include additional victims' rights provided by 18 U.S.C. 3772 and page 758 of the NDAA Fiscal Year 2015. These rights pertain to medical forensic examinations, sexual assault evidence collection kits, and the victim's preference for whether prosecution occurs in a military or civilian court. Publishing these amendments for public comment is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to public interest because the amendments are based upon a decision made by Congress which DoD has no discretion to alter or expand upon.

Regulatory Procedures

Executive Order 12866, "Regulatory Planning and Review" and Executive Order 13563, "Improving Regulation and Regulatory Review"

Executive Orders 13563 and 12866 direct agencies to assess all costs and benefits of available regulatory alternatives and, if regulation is necessary, to select regulatory approaches that maximize net benefits (including potential economic, environmental, public health and safety effects, distribute impacts, and equity).

Executive Order 13563 emphasizes the importance of quantifying both costs and benefits, of reducing costs, of harmonizing rules, and of promoting flexibility. This rule is not a "significant regulatory action," under Section 3(f) of E.O. 12866 and was reviewed by the Office of Management and Budget.

Executive Order 13771, "Reducing Regulation and Controlling Regulatory Costs"

The rule is not expected to be an E.O. 13771 regulatory action, because it is not significant under E.O. 12866.

Congressional Review Act

The Congressional Review Act, 5 U.S.C. 801 et seq., as amended by the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996, generally provides that before a rule may take effect, the agency promulgating the rule must submit a rule report, which includes a copy of the rule, to each House of the Congress and to the Comptroller General of the United States. We will submit a report containing this rule and other required information to the U.S. Senate, the U.S. House of Representatives, and the Comptroller General of the United States. A major rule cannot take effect until 60 days after it is published in the Federal Register. This final rule is not a "major rule" as defined by 5 U.S.C. 804(2).

Section 202, Public Law 104–4, "Unfunded Mandates Reform Act"

Section 202 of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (UMRA) (Pub. L. 104–4) requires agencies assess anticipated costs and benefits before issuing any rule whose mandates require spending in any 1 year of $100 million in 1995 dollars, updated annually for inflation. This rule will not mandate any requirements for State, local, or tribal governments, nor will it affect private sector costs.

Public Law 96–354, "Regulatory Flexibility Act" (5 U.S.C. 601)

The Department of Defense certifies that this final rule is not subject to the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601) because it would not, if promulgated, have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. Therefore, the Regulatory Flexibility Act, as amended, does not require DoD to prepare a regulatory flexibility analysis.

Public Law 96–511, "Paperwork Reduction Act" (44 U.S.C. Chapter 35)

The Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA) (44 U.S.C. 3501–3520) applies to collections of information using identical questions posed to, or reporting or recordkeeping requirements imposed on, ten or more members of the public. This rule does not impose requirements under the PRA.

Executive Order 13132, "Federalism"

Executive Order 13132 establishes certain requirements that an agency must meet when it promulgates a final rule that imposes substantial direct requirement costs on State and local governments, preempts State law, or otherwise has Federalism implications. This final rule will not have a substantial effect on State and local governments.

(B) Notification of the decision of the court.

(ii) When an offender's case is reviewed by the Office of the Judge Advocate General (TJAG) of the Military Department concerned, pursuant to Article 69 and Article 73 of the UCMJ, TJAG will ensure that all victims who have indicated a desire to be notified on DD Form 2704–1 receive notification of the outcome of the review.

(G) The cumulative number of inmates in each Military Service for whom victim witness notifications must be made by each Service's confinement facilities. (iv) The Office of the USD(P&R) will consolidate all reports submitted by each Military Service, and submit an annual report to the Bureau of Justice Statistics, and Office for Victims of Crime, Department of Justice.

[Victim Name]

[Address]

Dear [Mr.][Mrs.][Ms.] [Victim Name]:

The United States [Military Department] believes it is important to keep victims of crimes under the Uniform Code of Military Justice informed of court proceedings and decisions. Based on your election, and in accordance with Department of Defense Instruction 1030.02, "Victim and Witness Assistance," we are providing you with information about the military appellate process. An appeal is a legal proceeding by which a case is brought before a higher court for review of a decision made by a lower court. Convicted military members are generally entitled to appellate review even if they do not specifically allege any errors in the trial process.

[Name of Accused]'s case was submitted for appellate review on [Date] at the [Military Department] Court of Criminal Appeals. The Court of Criminal Appeals may consider briefs about the case or ask for briefs on specific issues in the case. The Court may also decide to hold a public courtroom proceeding to hear arguments about the case. If the Court determines a courtroom proceeding is warranted, you will be notified of the date and location so that you may attend. If the Court declines to hold a courtroom proceeding and decides the issue on the basis of briefs (or in the absence of any briefs), you will be notified of the ultimate decision.

A decision by the [Military Department] Court of Criminal Appeals is not necessarily the final resolution of this case. There are two superior courts from which the Appellant could also seek review. The [Military Department] Court of Criminal Appeals' decision may be appealed to the Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces (C.A.A.F.). If C.A.A.F. declines to review the appeal, the case becomes final and you will be informed. If C.A.A.F. decides to consider the appeal, you will be informed of the review taking place, of any courtroom proceedings, and of the final decision. If C.A.A.F. renders a decision on the case, further review may be sought from the Supreme Court of the United States. If this were to occur, you will be notified. Cases are also sometimes returned to the [Military Department] Court of Criminal Appeals for further proceedings. In addition, the Appellant may also petition the [Military Department Judge Advocate General] for a new trial based on newly discovered evidence or fraud upon the court. If that were to occur, you will be notified.

Right now, the case is before the [Military Department] Court of Criminal Appeals. Nothing is required of you but if you have questions or desire additional information, please contact [DESIGNATED REPRESENTATIVE/OFFICE] at [CONTACT INFORMATION].

Sincerely,
(Military Department designee)

Dated: April 7, 2020.

Aaron T. Siegel,

Alternate OSD Federal Register Liaison
Officer, Department of Defense.
