Automatic Extension of Time To File Certain Information Returns and Exempt Organization ReturnsAGENCY: Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Treasury.ACTION: Final regulations and removal of temporary regulations.

SUMMARY: This document contains final regulations relating to the automatic extension of time to file certain information returns and exempt organization returns. The final regulations adopt temporary rules that removed the requirement for a signature and an explanation to obtain an automatic extension of time to file these returns. The final regulations also remove the requirement for a signature to obtain an automatic extension of time to file corporation income tax returns. The final regulations affect taxpayers who need an extension of time to file certain information returns, exempt organization returns, and/or corporation income tax returns.

DATES: Effective Date: These regulations are effective on December 7, 2004.

Applicability Date: For dates of applicability, see §§ 1.6081-3(e), 1.6081-8(g), 1.6081-9(f), and 31.6081(a)-1(d).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:Background

This document contains amendments to 26 CFR parts 1, 25, 31, 53, 55, 156, 301, and 602 under section 6081 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to extensions of time to file Federal tax returns.

On June 11, 2003, the IRS published final and temporary regulations (TD 9061) in the Federal Register (68 FR 34797). A cross-reference notice of proposed rulemaking (REG-107618-02) was published in the Federal Register (68 FR 34875) on the same day. Subsequently, the IRS published a correction to the final and temporary regulations dated September 18, 2003 (68 FR 54660).

The temporary regulations provide an automatic extension of time to file certain information returns and exempt organization returns. The temporary regulations also removed the previously applicable rules requiring a signature and an explanation to obtain an automatic extension of time to file these returns. In addition, the temporary regulations made other minor changes to conform the regulations under section 6081 to current law and practice.

No comments were received from the public in response to the notice of proposed rulemaking and no public hearing was requested or held.

Explanation of Provisions

This Treasury decision removes the temporary regulations and adopts the proposed regulations as final regulations with the changes explained below.

The first change relates to the automatic extension of time to file exempt organization returns. Section 1.6081-9(a) of the proposed regulations provides that exempt organizations may automatically extend the time for filing Form 990 (series) returns for three months. This language inadvertently included exempt organizations organized in corporate form (corporate filers) that file Forms 990-T, "Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return" (and proxy tax under section 6033(e)), who previously could obtain a six-month extension of time to file each year. The IRS and the Treasury Department did not intend to make any changes regarding the extension period for corporate filers of the Form 990-T. Therefore, these final regulations clarify that corporate filers of the Form 990-T may obtain a six-month automatic extension of time to file by properly filing Form 8868.

Furthermore, in reviewing the regulations under section 6081, the IRS and the Treasury Department determined that it was appropriate to amend § 1.6081-3 to eliminate the requirement for corporations to provide a signature on Form 7004, "Application for Automatic Extension of Time To File Corporation Income Tax Return," to obtain a six-month automatic extension of time to file a corporation income tax return. Section 1.6081-3, like all other regulations providing for automatic extensions of time to file, does not require the taxpayer to explain why the extension is needed. Section 1.6081-3, however, unlike the other automatic extensions of time to file, does require a signature on the Form 7004. This signature requirement is an impediment to filing the Form 7004 electronically. The IRS and the Treasury Department have determined that there is no need for a signature requirement for the automatic corporation income tax return extension. Thus, to promote consistency and to remove barriers to electronic filing, this Treasury decision removes the signature requirement from § 1.6081-3.

In addition to removing the signature requirement, this Treasury decision revises § 1.6081-3 to reflect the repeal of section 6152, which allowed corporations to pay tax in installments. A similar revision is made to § 301.6651-1, relating to the addition to tax for failure to file return or pay tax. For a corporation that obtains an automatic extension of time to file under § 1.6081-3, the existing rules in § 301.6651-1(c)(4) provide that there is reasonable cause (and therefore no addition to tax) for failure to pay tax for the period of the extension if the corporation made payments on a schedule consistent with the installment payment schedule in section 6152, paid at least 90% of its tax due on or before the due date for the return, and paid any balance due on or before the extended due date. This Treasury decision removes the requirement that the corporation make payments on a schedule consistent with section 6152.

Section 1.6081-8 allows filers and transmitters of information returns on Form 1099 (series), 1098 (series), 5498 (series), W-2 (series), W-2G, 1042-S, and 8027 to request an automatic 30-day extension of time to file without having to sign Form 8809 and provide an explanation. An explanation and a signature are required if filers and transmitters need additional time to file after receiving the automatic 30-day extension. These regulations also permit employers to obtain an extension of time to file the Social Security Administration copy of Forms W-2 and W-3 without providing a statement of the reasons for requesting the extension.

The final regulations clarify that filers and transmitters are eligible for only one automatic extension of time to file. Filers and transmitters filing Forms W-2 on an expedited basis under § 31.6071(a)-1(a)(3)(ii) may receive an automatic extension of time to file Forms W-2 under Rev. Proc. 96-57, 1996-2 C.B. 389. These filers and transmitters are not eligible to obtain the 30-day automatic extension under § 1.6081-8(b). If these filers and transmitters need additional time, they may request an extension under the generally applicable procedures for obtaining additional extensions of time to file Form W-2.

Special Analyses

It has been determined that this Treasury decision is not a significant regulatory action as defined in Executive Order 12866. Therefore, a regulatory assessment is not required. It also has been determined that section 553(b) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 5) does not apply to these regulations and, therefore, notice of the amendments to §§ 1.6081-3 and 301.6651-1 and public procedure thereon is not required. Because these amendments merely remove a restriction (signature requirement) and otherwise make only nonsubstantive changes to remove references to prior law, a delayed effective date pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553(d) is also not required.

In addition, because the regulation does not impose a collection of information on small entities, the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 6) does not apply. Pursuant to section 7805(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, the notice of proposed rulemaking preceding this regulation and the amendments to §§ 1.6081-3 and 301.6651-1 have been submitted to the Chief Counsel for Advocacy of the Small Business Administration for comment on their impact on small business.

The principal author of these regulations is Charles A. Hall of the Office of Associate Chief Counsel, Procedure and Administration (Administrative Provisions and Judicial Practice Division). However, other personnel from the IRS and Treasury Department participated in their development.

■ Par. 3. Section 1.6081-3 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1.6081-3 Automatic extension of time for filing corporation income tax returns.

(a) In general. A corporation or an affiliated group of corporations filing a consolidated return will be allowed an automatic 6-month extension of time to file its income tax return after the date prescribed for filing the return if the following requirements are met:

(1) An application must be submitted on Form 7004, "Application for Automatic Extension of Time To File Corporation Income Tax Return," or in any other manner as may be prescribed by the Commissioner.

(2) The application must be filed on or before the date prescribed for the filing of the return of the corporation (or the consolidated return of the affiliated group of corporations) with the Internal Revenue Service office designated in the application's instructions.

(3) The corporation (or affiliated group of corporations filing a consolidated return) must remit the amount of the properly estimated unpaid tax liability on or before the date prescribed for payment.

(4) The application must include a statement listing the name and address of each member of the affiliated group if the affiliated group will file a consolidated return.

(b) No extension of time for the payment of tax. Any automatic extension of time for filing a corporation income tax return granted under paragraph (a) of this section shall not operate to extend the time for payment of any tax due on such return.

(c) Termination of automatic extension. The Commissioner may terminate an automatic extension at any time by mailing a notice of termination to the corporation (parent corporation in the case of an affiliated group of corporations filing a consolidated return). The notice shall be mailed at least 10 days prior to the termination date designated in such notice. The notice of termination shall be sufficient for all purposes when mailed to the corporation at the address shown on Form 7004 or to the corporation's last known address. For further guidance regarding the definition of last known address, see § 301.6212-2 of this chapter.

(d) No extension for DISCs. Paragraphs (a) through (c) of this section shall not apply to returns filed by a DISC pursuant to section 6011(c)(2).

(2) Procedures. In the case of an information return on a form listed in paragraph (a) of this section, one additional 30-day extension of time to file the return may be allowed if the filer or transmitter submits a request for the additional extension before the expiration of the automatic 30-day extension. (f) Form W-2 filed on expedited basis. This section does not apply to a return on Form W-2 (series) if the procedures authorized in § 31.6081(a)-1(a)(2)(ii) of this chapter allow an automatic extension of time to file the return.
