SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Introduction

The Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(4) and (11)) requires the Department to publish in the Federal Register this notice of an altered systems of records. The Department's regulations implementing the Privacy Act are contained in the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) in 34 CFR part 5b.

The Privacy Act applies to information about an individual that is maintained in a system of records from which information is retrieved by a unique identifier associated with each individual, such as a name or Social Security number (SSN). The information about each individual is called a "record," and the system, whether manual or computer-based, is called a "system of records."

The Privacy Act requires each agency to publish notices of systems of records in the Federal Register and to prepare, whenever the agency publishes a new system of records or makes a significant change to an established system of records, reports to the Chair of the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform of the House of Representatives, the Chair of the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs of the Senate, and the Administrator of the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, OMB.

A system of records is considered "altered" whenever an agency expands the types or categories of information maintained, significantly expands the types or categories of individuals about whom records are maintained, changes the purpose for which the information is used, changes the equipment configuration in a way that creates substantially greater access to the records, or adds a routine use disclosure to the system. Since this system of records was published in the Federal Register on December 27, 1999 (64 FR 72395–97), a number of changes are needed to update and accurately describe the current system of records. Most significantly, this notice expands the type of information maintained in the system, clarifies the categories of individuals covered by the system and the system's purposes, and reflects the current programmatic routine use disclosures needed to carry out responsibilities under the HEA.

This system of records will facilitate the Secretary of Education's performance of statutory duties to prescribe standards and procedures under section 485B of the HEA (including relevant definitions) that require all eligible institutions, lenders and guaranty agencies to report information on all aspects of loans and grants made under Title IV of the HEA in uniform formats in order to permit the direct comparison of data submitted by individual institutions, lenders, servicers, or guaranty agencies.

The changes proposed are intended to expand the information maintained in the system of records so that it would now include all of the loans and grants made under Title IV of the HEA, to clarify the categories of individuals covered by the system and the system's purposes, and to add routine uses to make disclosures needed to carry out statutory responsibilities contained in the system. This altered notice better reflects the current programmatic routine use disclosures needed by FSA to establish applicant eligibility as required under the HEA. Collectively, these revisions will enhance the ability of the Secretary to collect and maintain information on loans made, insured, or guaranteed under Part B of Title IV of the HEA, and loans made under Parts D and E of Title IV of the HEA.

Accessible Format: Individuals with disabilities can obtain this document in an accessible format (e.g., braille, large print, audiotape, or computer diskette) on request to the contact person listed under FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT.
