

the Act. Parties that filed entries of appearance in the preliminary phase of the investigation need not enter a separate appearance for the final phase of the investigation. Industrial users, and, if the merchandise under investigation is sold at the retail level, representative consumer organizations have the right to appear as parties in Commission antidumping duty investigations. The Secretary will prepare a public service list containing the names and addresses of all persons, or their representatives, who are parties to the investigation.

Background

On March 19, 2008, a petition was filed with the Commission and Commerce by Parker-Hannifin Corp., Cleveland, OH, alleging that an industry in the United States is materially injured or threatened with material injury by reason of LTFV imports of frontseating service valves from China. Accordingly, effective March 19, 2008, the Commission instituted antidumping duty investigation No. 731-TA-1148 (Preliminary).

Notice of the institution of the Commission's investigation and of a public conference to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register of March 26, 2008 (73 FR 16059). The conference was held in Washington, DC, on April 8, 2008, and all persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to appear in person or by counsel.

The Commission transmitted its determination in this investigation to the Secretary of Commerce on May 5, 2008. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 3999 (May 2008), entitled Frontseating Service Valves from China: Investigation No. 731-TA-1148 (Preliminary).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: May 12, 2008.

Marilyn R. Abbott,

Secretary to the Commission.

Notice Pursuant to the National Cooperative Research and Production Act of 1993—OpenSAF Foundation

Notice is hereby given that, on April 8, 2008, pursuant to Section 6(a) of the National Cooperative Research and Production Act of 1993, 15 U.S.C. et seq. ("the Act"), OpenSAF Foundation has filed written notifications simultaneously with the Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission disclosing (1) the identities of the parties to the venture and (2) the nature and objectives of the venture. The notifications were filed for the purpose of invoking the Act's provisions limiting the recovery of antitrust plaintiffs to actual damages under specified circumstances.

Pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, the identities of the parties to the venture are: Wind River Systems, Alameda, CA; Hewlett-Packard Company, Palo Alto, CA; Emerson Network Power Embedded Computing, Tempe, AZ; Sun Microsystems, Inc., Santa Clara, CA; Ericsson AB, Alvsjo, Sweden; and Nokia Siemens Networks, Espoo, Finland. The general area of OpenSAF Foundation's planned activity are to enable and facilitate the creation of high availability vendor-neutral open source software tools (the "Foundation Software") generally consistent with SA Forum specifications and to disseminate, promote and encourage the use of the Foundation Software worldwide to ensure broad adoption. OpenSAF Foundation will pursue these purposes through additional activities such as providing for testing and conformity assessment of Foundation Software; the creation and ownership of distinctive trademarks; and the operation of a branding program based upon distinctive trademarks to create high customer awareness of, demand for, and confidence in products incorporating or interoperable with Foundation Software and/or Specifications. OpenSAF Foundation may also create specifications where they are not available from other sources and undertake those other activities which its Board may from time to time approve in connection with the foregoing.

Patricia A. Brink,

Deputy Director of Operations, Antitrust Division.
