

Working Group. EPA anticipates that the Working Group will have five face-to-face meetings over the course of the next year in addition to conference calls and/or video conferencing on an as needed basis. After the Working Group completes its charge, it will make recommendations to the full NDWAC. The full NDWAC will, in turn, make appropriate recommendations to the EPA.

Working Group Charge: The charge for the CRWU Working Group is to evaluate the concept of "Climate Ready Water Utilities" and provide recommendations to the full NDWAC on the development of an effective program for drinking water and wastewater utilities, including recommendations to: (1) Define and develop a baseline understanding of how to use available information to develop climate change adaptation and mitigation strategies, including ways to integrate this information into existing complementary programs such as the Effective Utility Management and Climate Ready Estuaries Program; (2) identify climate change-related tools, training, and products that address short-term and long-term needs of water and wastewater utility managers, decision makers, and engineers, including ways to integrate these tools and training into existing programs; and (3) incorporate mechanisms to provide recognition or incentives that facilitate broad adoption of climate change adaptation and mitigation strategies by the water sector into existing EPA Office of Water recognition and awards programs or new recognition programs.

Dated: November 3, 2009.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Proposal to extend for three years without revision the following currently approved collection of information:

Title: Basel II Capital: Disclosures and Recordkeeping.

OMB Number: 3064-0153.

Frequency of Response: Annually.

Affected Public: Insured state nonmember banks, insured state branches of foreign banks, and certain subsidiaries of those entities.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 19.

Estimated Time per Response: Written implementation plan—330 hours; documentation—19 hours; systems maintenance—27.89 hours; prior written approvals—16.84 hours; control, oversight and verification of systems—11.05 hours; disclosures—5.79 hours.

Estimated Total Annual Burden: 7,801 hours.

General Description of Report: This information collections is mandatory: 12 U.S.C. 1831(o).

Abstract: On December 7, 2007, the FDIC, jointly with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve Board, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, and the Office of Thrift Supervision, issued the joint final rule entitled Risk-Based Capital Standards: Advanced Capital Adequacy Framework (final rule) implementing a new risk-based regulatory capital framework for institutions in the United States. The final rule requires certain large or internationally active banks and bank holding companies (BHCs) to (1) Adopt a written implementation plan, (2) update that plan for any mergers, (3) obtain prior written approvals for the use of certain approaches for determining risk-weighted assets, and (4) make certain public disclosures regarding their capital ratios, their components, and information on implicit support provided to a securitization. The paperwork burden associated with these requirements has been approved under OMB Control No. 3064-0153.

Request for Comment

Comments are invited on:
