A detailed assessment of the human remains was made by Milwaukee Public Museum professional staff and contract specialists in physical anthropology, in consultation with representatives of Central Council of Tlingit and Haida Indian Tribes of Alaska.

At an unknown date, human remains representing one individual were removed from an unknown location in Rudyerd Bay, AK, by Walter Pelzer. Mr. Pelzer donated the human remains to the Milwaukee Public Museum in 1946. At the time of donation, Mr. Pelzer identified the context of removal as a burial. No known individual was identified.
