Title; Associated Form; and OMB Number: Air Force Families Forever Annual Survivor Survey; OMB Control Number 0701-AFFF.

Type of Request: New.

Number of Respondents: 350.

Responses per Respondent: 1.

Annual Responses: 350.

Average Burden per Response: 25 minutes.

Annual Burden Hours: 146.

Needs and Uses: The Air Force Families Forever (AFFF) program is a long-term survivor program established to provide support to family members of deceased Regular Air Force and U.S. Space Force members and Reserve Component Airmen who died in an Active Duty, Inactive Duty for Training (IDT), or Annual Training (AT) status and whose relationship was established prior to the Airman or Guardian's death. The program's mission is to link families of fallen Airmen and Guardians to their Air Force and Space Force Family, thereby promoting Survivor resilience and fostering well-being and connectedness. The Air Force Families Forever Annual Survivor Survey is necessary to assess the impact and effectiveness of AFFF and make changes to policy, operational guidance, or tactical implementation of the program based on the results. Results may lead to changes to the current outreach conducted through AFFF, a reassessment of appropriate staffing levels, and the identification of high performing program elements, to name just a few potential outcomes. The AFFF survey is available to those NOK who are eligible for the program to obtain their assessment of how the program supports them and if any changes to the program are necessary to improve support. The survey is voluntary and will not collect any information specific to the respondent's identity. The information collected will remain confidential and will only be used in aggregate. The results will be analyzed by headquarters staff to understand the impacts of the AFFF program.

Affected Public: Individuals or households.

Frequency: Annual.

Respondent's Obligation: Voluntary.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title; Associated Form; and OMB

Number: Overseas Citizen Population Survey; OMB Control Number 0704-0539.

Needs and Uses: The primary objective of the Overseas Citizen Population Survey (OCPs), conducted on behalf of the Federal Voting Assistance Program (FVAP), is to refine FVAP's methodology for estimating the number of overseas U.S. civilians who are eligible to vote and who have registered and participated in the past. These estimates are then used to address the question of whether the registration and voting propensity of the overseas civilian population differs from that of comparable domestic or military populations. Subsequent to each Presidential election year, FVAP must report to Congress voter registration and participation rates for Uniformed Services voters and overseas citizens. Previous attempts to collect information on the overseas citizen population to identify and measure its voter registration and participation rates in Federal elections suffered from significant bias; this effort is focused on refining a well-established method to report voter registration and participation rates from a more well-defined subgroup of overseas civilians. Conducting this research will help FVAP meet its federal and congressional mandates in terms of reporting annually on its activities and overall voter registration and participation rates after each Presidential election. The data obtained through this study is also intended to provide insights into existing barriers to UOCAVA voting and recommendations for addressing these challenges. In 2018, data from the 2016 survey was used to identify the barriers that overseas citizens face in requesting, casting, and returning their ballots—and, along with the 2018 data, which is just becoming available, will help shape FVAP's outreach to these voters in 2020 and beyond. The 2020 version of the OCPS will test awareness and efficacy of these efforts. The survey also identified that overseas voters are more likely to avail themselves of electronic options when requesting their ballots (compared to active duty military, who rely more often on postal mail). These results guided changes to the 2020 survey, which further probes this difference. Finally, the 2018 survey allows for a midterm-to-midterm comparison of the overseas voting experience from 2014 to 2018—and the 2020 version will permit a similar comparison to the 2016 presidential election. To obtain the necessary information, the OCPS will use data collected from a sample of registered overseas civilian voters in conjunction with previous country level estimates developed by FVAP research and establish a research method to assist FVAP in reporting voter registration and participation rates for the 2020 election.

Needs and Uses: Public Law (Pub. L.) 98-212 established the Family Advocacy Program (FAP) for the purpose of identifying, responding, and treating child abuse/neglect and domestic abuse. Section 543 of Public Law 103-337, National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA) for Fiscal Year (FY) 1995, establishes the requirement for domestic abuse victim advocates (DAVAs) in the Armed Forces that are responsible for (1) working with victims of domestic abuse to provide: (a) information on available benefits and services, (b) assistance in obtaining those benefits and services, and (c) other appropriate assistance. (2) Services offered in the case of an individual who is a victim of family violence (including intrafamilial sexual, physical, and emotional abuse) shall be provided principally through the FAPs of the military departments. Section 574 of Public Law 114-328, NDAA for FY 2017, requires that the Armed Forces report to Congress critical information on the circumstances of incidents of child abuse/neglect and domestic abuse to further inform ongoing prevention and response efforts. The FAP Central Registry data submitted from each Military Service (Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Air Force) is aggregated to report a DoD-wide description of the child abuse/neglect and domestic abuse incidents reported to FAP annually, by fiscal year. Section 543 of Public Law 114-328 further directed the Secretary of Defense to include information on each claim of retaliation in connection with a report of sexual assault (to include domestic abuse incidents) in the Armed Forces made by or against a member of such Armed Forces. This includes the narrative description and nature of each complaint, information on the complainant and alleged retaliator, and summary and determination of the investigation. Section 536 of Public Law 116-92, NDAA for FY 2020, directs the Secretary to prescribe procedures under which a victim who files a restricted report on an incident of sexual assault (to include domestic abuse incidents) may request, at any time, the return of any personal property of the victim obtained as part of the sexual assault forensic examination. Section 543 of Public Law 113-291, DoDI 5505.18, "Investigation of Adult Sexual in the Department of Defense," and Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness memorandum, Section 536 of Public Law 115-232, NDAA for FY 2019, "Procedures to Implement the "Catch a Serial Offender Program," establishes the requirement for the option of expedited transfer to be made available to victims of domestic abuse. DoD Instruction (DoDI) 6400.06, "DoD Coordinated Community Response to Domestic Abuse Involving DoD Military and Certain Affiliated Personnel," sets forth the policies for the implementation and execution of the FAP to include programs consistent
