SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Section 38(e) of the Arms Export Control Act mandates that notifications to the Congress pursuant to section 36(c) must be published in the Federal Register when they are transmitted to Congress or as soon thereafter as practicable.

Dated: September 11, 2001.

William J. Lowell,

Director, Office of Defense Trade Controls, Department of State.

United States Department of State,

July 16, 2001.

Dear Mr. Speaker: Pursuant to section 36(c) of the Arms Export Control Act, I am transmitting herewith certification of a proposed license for the export of defense articles or defense services sold commercially under a contract in the amount of $50,000,000 or more.

The transaction described in the attached certification involves the export of the EchoStar VII commercial communications satellite for launch on a Proton rocket from Kazakhstan.

The United States Government is prepared to license the export of these items having taken into account political, military, economic, human rights, and arms control considerations.

More detailed information is contained in the formal certification which, though unclassified, contains business information submitted to the Department of State by the applicant, publication of which could cause competitive harm to the United States firm concerned.

Sincerely,

Paul V. Kelly,

Assistant Secretary, Legislative Affairs.

Notice of Receipt of Cultural Property Request From the Government of the Republic of Honduras

AGENCY: Department of State.
ACTION: Notice.

The Government of the Republic of Honduras, concerned that its cultural heritage is in jeopardy from pillage, made a request to the Government of the United States under Article 9 of the 1970 UNESCO Convention. The request was received on August 22, 2001, by the United States Department of State. It seeks U.S. import restrictions on Pre-Columbian archaeological material that includes certain categories of ceramic, stone, metal, shell, and bone artifacts.

In accordance with provisions of the Convention on Cultural Property Implementation Act (19 U.S.C. 2601 et seq.), the request will be submitted for review by the Cultural Property Advisory Committee that will report on its findings and recommendations.

A Public Summary of the Honduras Request and information about the Act and U.S. implementation of the 1970 UNESCO Convention can be found at <http://exchanges.state.gov/education/culprop>.

Dated: September 17, 2001.

Helena Kane Finn,

Acting Assistant Secretary for Educational and Cultural Affairs, U.S. Department of State.

Federal Aviation Administration

Public Notice for Waiver of Aeronautical Land-Use Assurance Houlton International Airport, Houlton, ME

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Request for public comments. Notice of intent of waiver with respect to land.

SUMMARY: The FAA is requesting public comment on the Town of Houlton's request to dispose of a portion of airport property (approximately 1.66 acres known as 42 Airport Road, Houlton, Maine) no longer needed for aeronautical use, as shown on the Airport Layout Plan. The property requested for disposition is currently vacant and will be sold to an abutter for use in expansion of an ongoing business. There appear to be no impacts to the airport by allowing the disposal of the property. The land was transferred from the federal government as Surplus Property by Quitclaim Deed dated under July 14, 1947 and Supplemental Quitclaim Deed dated July 31, 1948.

Proceeds from the sale of the airport property will be used for Airport purposes.

DATES: Comments must be received on or before October 22, 2001.

ADDRESSES: Documents are available for review by appointment by contacting Charles Upton, Director of Community Development at 21 Water Street, Houlton, Maine, Telephone 207-532-7113 and by contacting Donna R. Witte, Federal Aviation Administration, 16 New England Executive Park, Burlington, Massachusetts, Telephone 781-238-7624.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Donna R. Witte at the Federal Aviation Administration, 12 New England Executive Park, Burlington, Massachusetts 01803, Telephone 781-238-7624.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Section 125 of The Wendell H. Ford Aviation Investment and Reform Act for the 21st Century (AIR 21) requires the FAA to provide an opportunity for public notice and comment to the "waiver" or "modification" of a sponsor's Federal obligation to use certain airport property for aeronautical purposes.

Issued in Burlington, Massachusetts on September 10, 2001.

Vincent A. Scarano,
Manager, Airports Division, New England Region.
