SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Status of Forces Reserve Survey (SOFs-R) is a DoD-wide annual survey of Reserve Component members that is used to evaluate existing policies and programs, establishing baseline measures before implementing new policies and programs, and monitoring the progress of established policies/programs. The survey assesses topics such as financial well-being, satisfaction, readiness, stress, retention intention, food security, and suicide awareness.

Title; Associated Form; and OMB Number: Status of the Forces Survey of Reserve Members; OMB Control Number 0704-0616.

Needs and Uses: The Status of Forces Reserve Survey (SOFs-R) is an annual DoD-wide large-scale survey of Reserve Component members that is used in evaluating existing policies and programs, establishing baseline measures before implementing new policies and programs, and monitoring the progress of existing policies/programs. The survey assesses topics such as financial well-being, retention intention, stress, tempo, readiness, food security and suicide awareness. In 2023, the survey will also include a section on the Yellow Ribbon Reintegration Program. Data are aggregated by appropriate demographics, including Service, paygrade, gender, race/ethnicity, and other indicators. In order to be able to meet reporting requirements for DoD leadership, the Military Services, and Congress, the survey needs to be completed in 2023. The legal requirements for the SOFs-R can be found in the FY2016 NDAA, Title VI, Subtitle F, Subpart 661. This legal requirement mandates that the SOFs-R solicit information on financial literacy and preparedness. Results will be used by the Service Secretaries to evaluate and update financial literacy training and will be submitted in a report to the Committees on Armed Services of the Senate and the House of Representatives.
