SUMMARY: EPA is taking direct final action to approve revisions to the State of Maryland State Implementation Plan (SIP). The revisions pertain to adoption through incorporation by reference of the national ambient air quality standards (NAAQS) by the State of Maryland. EPA is approving these revisions that adopt the NAAQS for ozone (O₃), sulfur dioxide (SO₂), nitrogen dioxide (NO₂), lead (Pb), particulate matter (PM) and carbon monoxide (CO) as well as the relevant reference and equivalent monitoring methods through incorporation by reference into the Code of Maryland regulations (COMAR) on an “as amended” basis which will prospectively incorporate all future revisions and additions to the NAAQS in accordance with the requirements of the Clean Air Act (CAA).

DATES: This rule is effective on April 12, 2013 without further notice, unless EPA receives adverse written comment by March 13, 2013. If EPA receives such comments, it will publish a timely withdrawal of the direct final rule in the Federal Register and inform the public that the rule will not take effect.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

On November 15, 2012, the State of Maryland submitted a formal revision (SIP Revision #12–07) to its SIP. The SIP revision consists of the adoption of the revisions since 2006 of the following NAAQS along with the associated definitions, reference conditions, and methods of measurement associated with these NAAQS: PM, SO₂, NO₂, Pb and O₃.

II. Summary of SIP Revision

This SIP revision updates Maryland's SIP to incorporate the following revisions to the NAAQS which were promulgated since 2006:

(1) The revised NAAQS for PM (71 FR 61224, Oct. 17, 2006) and the applicable definitions, reference conditions, and methods of measurement as specified in 40 CFR parts 50, 53, and 58;

(2) the NAAQS for Pb (73 FR 67052, Nov. 12, 2008) and the applicable definitions, reference conditions, and methods of measurement as specified in 40 CFR parts 50, 51, 53 and 58;

(3) the revised NAAQS for O₃ (73 FR 16511, Mar. 27, 2008) and the applicable definitions, reference conditions, and methods of measurement as specified in 40 CFR parts 50 and 58;

(4) the revised NAAQS for NO₂ (75 FR 6531, Feb. 9, 2010) and the applicable definitions, reference conditions, and methods of measurement as specified in 40 CFR parts 50 and 58; and

(5) the revised NAAQS for SO₂ (75 FR 35592, June 22, 2010) and the definitions, reference conditions, and methods of measurement as specified in 40 CFR parts 50, 53 and 58;

In addition, Maryland's SIP revision submittal seeks to incorporate by reference the NAAQS of 40 CFR part 50 prospectively in order for Maryland's ambient air quality standards to be identical at all times to the NAAQS as well as the pertinent definitions, ambient air monitoring reference and equivalent methods in 40 CFR parts 51, 53 and 58. Therefore, whenever EPA promulgates a new or revised NAAQS in 40 CFR part 50 or revisions to the applicable definitions, ambient air monitoring reference and equivalent methods in 40 CFR parts 51, 53 and 58, the Maryland SIP will automatically reflect such additions and revisions without further action by the State of Maryland or EPA.

Specifically, this revision includes the following changes to Title 26—Department of The Environment, Subtitle 11—Air Quality, Chapter 04 Ambient Air Quality Standards (COMAR 26.11.04):

(1) The deletion of Regulation .04 (COMAR 26.11.04.04) relating to ambient air quality standards for PM;

(2) the deletion of Regulation .05 (COMAR 26.11.04.05) relating to ambient air quality standards for SO₂;

(3) the deletion of Regulation .06 (COMAR 26.11.04.06) relating to ambient air quality standards for CO;

(4) the deletion of Regulation .07 (COMAR 26.11.04.07) relating to ambient air quality standards for O₃;

(5) the deletion of Regulation .08 (COMAR 26.11.04.08) relating to ambient air quality standards for NO₂;

(6) the deletion of Regulation .09 (COMAR 26.11.04.09) relating to ambient air quality standards for Pb;

(7) the deletion of Regulation .02 (COMAR 26.11.04.02) relating to definitions, reference conditions, and methods of measurement as those specified in 40 CFR parts 50, 53, and 58 of the 2003 edition;

(8) the deletion of Regulation 02 (COMAR 26.11.04.02) which stated that “Regulations .03–.09 [COMAR 26.11.04.3–.09] of this chapter contain State-adopted National Ambient Air Quality Standards” which no longer has any substantive value because the regulations it cites have been repealed; and

(9) the addition of a new Regulation .02 (COMAR 26.11.04.02) which specifies that the ambient air quality standards, definitions, reference conditions, and methods of measurement are those specified in 40 CFR parts 50, 51, 53, and 58, “as amended.” Maryland uses the phrase “as amended” in COMAR 26.11.01.02 so that future versions of these regulations are adopted prospectively. See Maryland's “Incorporation By Reference (IBR) Manual,” (Revised 7/2009) (available at <http://www.dsd.state.md.us/mdregister/IBRManual.pdf>).

EPA finds that Maryland has adequately incorporated by reference the NAAQS and related definitions, reference conditions, and methods of measurement as specified in 40 CFR parts 50, 51, 53, and 58, and, through the use of the phrase “as amended” in the COMAR regulatory text, is incorporating by reference future amendments to the NAAQS and related definitions, reference conditions, and methods of measurement specified in 40 CFR parts 50, 51, 53, and 58.

III. Final Action

EPA is approving the November 15, 2012 SIP revision which includes amendments to COMAR 26.11.04 into the State of Maryland SIP. EPA is publishing this rule without prior proposal because EPA views this as a noncontroversial amendment and anticipates no adverse comment. However, in the “Proposed Rules” section of today's Federal Register, EPA is publishing a separate document that will serve as the proposal to approve the SIP revision if adverse comments are filed. This rule will be effective on April 12, 2013 without further notice unless EPA receives adverse comment by March 13, 2013. If EPA receives adverse comment, EPA will publish a timely withdrawal in the Federal Register informing the public that the rule will not take effect. EPA will address all public comments in a subsequent final rule based on the proposed rule. EPA will not institute a second comment period on this action. Any parties interested in commenting must do so at this time.

IV. Statutory and Executive Order Reviews

A. General Requirements

Under the CAA, the Administrator is required to approve a SIP submission that complies with the provisions of the CAA and applicable Federal regulations. 42 U.S.C. 7410(k); 40 CFR 52.02(a). Thus, in reviewing SIP submissions, EPA's role is to approve state choices, provided that they meet the criteria of the CAA. Accordingly, this action merely approves state law as meeting Federal requirements and does not impose additional requirements beyond those imposed by state law. For that reason, this action:

- Is not a “significant regulatory action” subject to review by the Office of Management and Budget under Executive Order 12866 (58 FR 51735, October 4, 1993);
- Does not impose an information collection burden under the provisions of the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.);
- Is certified as not having a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities under the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.);
- Does not contain any unfunded mandate or significantly or uniquely affect small governments, as described in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (Pub. L. 104–4);
- Does not have Federalism implications as specified in Executive Order 13132 (64 FR 43255, August 10, 1999);
- Is not an economically significant regulatory action based on health or safety risks subject to Executive Order 13045 (62 FR 19885, April 23, 1997);

- Is not a significant regulatory action subject to Executive Order 13211 (66 FR 28355, May 22, 2001);

- Is not subject to requirements of Section 12(d) of the National Technology Transfer and Advancement Act of 1995 (15 U.S.C. 272 note) because application of those requirements would be inconsistent with the CAA; and

- Does not provide EPA with the discretionary authority to address, as appropriate, disproportionate human health or environmental effects, using practicable and legally permissible methods, under Executive Order 12898 (59 FR 7629, February 16, 1994).

In addition, this rule does not have tribal implications as specified by Executive Order 13175 (65 FR 67249, November 9, 2000), because the SIP is not approved to apply in Indian country located in the state, and EPA notes that it will not impose substantial direct costs on tribal governments or preempt tribal law.

B. Submission to Congress and the Comptroller General

The Congressional Review Act, 5 U.S.C. 801 et seq., as added by the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996, generally provides that before a rule may take effect, the agency promulgating the rule must submit a rule report, which includes a copy of the rule, to each House of the Congress and to the Comptroller General of the United States. EPA will submit a report containing this action and other required information to the U.S. Senate, the U.S. House of Representatives, and the Comptroller General of the United States prior to publication of the rule in the Federal Register. A major rule cannot take effect until 60 days after it is published in the Federal Register. This action is not a “major rule” as defined by 5 U.S.C. 804(2).

C. Petitions for Judicial Review

Under section 307(b)(1) of the CAA, petitions for judicial review of this action must be filed in the United States Court of Appeals for the appropriate circuit by April 12, 2013. Filing a petition for reconsideration by the Administrator of this final rule does not affect the finality of this action for the purposes of judicial review nor does it extend the time within which a petition for judicial review may be filed, and shall not postpone the effectiveness of such rule or action. Parties with objections to this direct final rule are encouraged to file a comment in response to the parallel notice of proposed rulemaking for this action published in the proposed rules section of today’s Federal Register, rather than file an immediate petition for judicial review of this direct final rule, so that EPA can withdraw this direct final rule and address the comment in the proposed rulemaking. This action to approve amendments to COMAR 26.11.04 Ambient Air Quality Standards may not be challenged later in proceedings to enforce its requirements. (See section 307(b)(2).)
