[Docket No. TS04-164-001]

Venice Gathering System, L.L.C.; Notice of Filing

August 23, 2006.

Take notice that on August 3, 2006, pursuant to section 358.1(d) of the Commission's regulations, Venice Gathering System, L.L.C. filed a request for continuation of and supplement to a partial waiver of the standards of conduct for transmission providers that was granted by the Commission on October 27, 2004.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211, 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. Anyone filing a motion to intervene or protest must serve a copy of that document on the Applicant and all the parties in this proceeding.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

This filing is accessible on-line at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the "eLibrary" link and is available for review in the Commission's Public Reference Room in Washington, DC. There is an "eSubscription" link on the Web site that enables subscribers to receive e-mail notification when a document is added to a subscribed docket(s). [Docket No. EL06-97-000]

Wisconsin Public Service Corporation, Upper Peninsula Power Company, WPS Energy Services, Inc., WPS Power Development, L.L.C. Complainants v. Midwest Independent Transmission System Operator, Inc., PJM Interconnection, L.L.C. Respondents; Notice of Complaint

August 22, 2006.

Take notice that on August 16, 2006, Wisconsin Public Service Corporation, Upper Peninsula Power Company, WPS Energy Services, Inc. and WPS Power Development, L.L.C. (Complainants) filed a formal complaint, pursuant to section 206 of the Federal Power Act and 18 CFR. 385.206, against the Midwest Independent Transmission System Operator, Inc. and PJM Interconnection, L.L.C. (the Respondents) alleging that the Respondents' June 28, 2006 report to the Commission in Docket Nos. ER04-375-017 and ER04-375-018 fails to comply with the Commission's orders requiring the actual implementation by the Respondents of a comprehensive Joint and Common Market. On August 18, 2006, Complainants filed an amended Exhibit WPS-1 to replace the same exhibit filed on August 16, 2006.

The Complainants state that copies of the complaint were served on the contacts for the Respondents and the affected state commissions.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211, 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. The Respondent's answer and all interventions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. The Respondent's answer, motions to intervene, and protests must be served on the Complainants.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.
