Hereafter, all the Indian Tribes listed in this section are referred to as "The Tribes."

History and Description of the Remains

At an unknown date, human remains representing, at minimum, three individuals were removed from Mesa Verde in Montezuma County, CO. They were acquired by Kalamazoo resident Donald Boudeman, who collected Native American material culture in the first half of the 20th century. In July of 1961, some years after her husband's death, Donna Boudeman donated the human remains to the Michigan State University Museum. In February of 2019, during an intertribal consultation, the remains of these individuals were found in the Michigan State University Forensic Anthropology Laboratory. The human remains belong to a child 6.5–8.5 years old and two adult females. No known individuals were identified. No associated funerary objects are present.

Mesa Verde was occupied by Ancestral Puebloan people from approximately A.D. 500 to 1200. All the individuals listed in this Notice of Inventory Completion are reasonably believed to be Puebloan, based on the provenience and documentation associated with the human remains. A relationship of shared group identity can be traced between Ancestral Puebloan people and modern Puebloan groups, based on oral tradition, historical evidence, archeological, geographical, and scientific studies.

Determinations Made by Michigan State University

Officials of Michigan State University have determined that:

- Pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001(9), the human remains described in this notice represent the physical remains of three individuals of Native American ancestry.
- Pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001(2), there is a relationship of shared group identity that can be reasonably traced between the Native American human remains and The Tribes.

Additional Requestors and Disposition

Lineal descendants or representatives of any Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice that wish to request transfer of control of these human remains should submit a written request with information in support of the request to Judith Stoddart, Associate Provost, University Arts and Collections, Michigan State University, 287 Delta Court, East Lansing, MI 48824, telephone (517) 432–2524, email stoddart@msu.edu, by September 29, 2022. After that date, if no additional requestors have come forward, transfer of control of the human remains to The Tribes may proceed.

Michigan State University is responsible for notifying The Tribes that this notice has been published.
