

Commerce will grant the request unless it finds compelling reasons to deny the request.

On November 29, 2021, the petitioner² in this investigation submitted a timely request that Commerce postpone the preliminary CVD determination.³ The petitioner stated that it is requesting a postponement because additional time is needed to collect the necessary information for determining the most accurate possible CVD rates.⁴

Therefore, in accordance with section 703(c)(1)(A) of the Act, Commerce is postponing the deadline for the preliminary determination to no later than 130 days after the date on which this investigation was initiated, i.e., February 28, 2022.⁵ Pursuant to section 705(a)(1) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.210(b)(1), the deadline for the final determination of this investigation will continue to be 75 days after the date of the preliminary determination.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Correction

In the Federal Register of September 30, 2021, in FR Doc 2021–21256, on page 54157, in the second column under the section titled, "Cash Deposit Requirements," correct the cash deposit instructions to be issued to U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP). Specifically, Calcutta Seafoods Pvt. Ltd./Bay Seafood Pvt. Ltd./Elque & Co. does not have a superseding cash deposit rate; therefore, we will issue revised cash deposits instructions to CBP. In addition, Milsha Agro Exports Pvt. Ltd. has a superseding cash deposit rate; therefore, we will not issue revised cash deposit instructions to CBP.

Background

On September 30, 2021, Commerce published in the Federal Register the amended final results of the administrative review of the antidumping duty order on shrimp from India covering the period February 1, 2017, through January 31, 2018.¹ In the

¹ See Certain Frozen Warmwater Shrimp from India: Notice of Court Decision Not in Harmony With the Results of Antidumping Administrative

Amended Final Results, we incorrectly stated that Calcutta Seafoods Pvt. Ltd./Bay Seafood Pvt. Ltd./Elque & Co. had a superseding cash deposit rate; however, no such instructions have been issued. Because no superseding rate is in place, we will issue revised cash deposit instructions to CBP. In addition, in the Amended Final Results, we incorrectly stated that we would issue revised cash deposit instructions to CBP with respect to Milsha Agro Exports Pvt. Ltd. However, this company currently has a superseding rate, and, therefore, no revised cash deposit instructions will be issued. This notice serves to correct these errors. No other changes have been made to the Amended Final Results.
