

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protest is April 3, 2006.

Absent a request to be heard in opposition by the deadline above, Global Energy is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as a guarantor, indorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of Global Energy, compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approval of Global Energy's issuances of securities or assumptions of liability.

Copies of the full text of the Director's Order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Room, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426. The Order may also be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the eLibrary link. Enter the docket number excluding the last three digits in the docket number filed to access the document. Comments, protests, and interventions may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper. See, 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's Web site under the "e-Filing" link. The Commission strongly encourages electronic filings.

[Docket No. EL06-55-000]

Atlantic City Electric Company, Delmarva Power & Light Company, Potomac Electric Power Company, Complainant v. PJM Interconnection, LLC, Respondent; Notice of Complaint

March 3, 2006.

Take notice that on March 2, 2006, Atlantic City Electric Company, Delmarva Power & Light Company, and Potomac Electric Power Company (the PHI Companies), pursuant to section 206 of the Federal Power Act, 16 U.S.C. 824e and section 206 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedures, 18 CFR 385.206, filed a complaint against PJM Interconnection,

LLC (PJM) alleging that, in contravention of PJM's Operating Agreement and Commission orders and policy, PJM has failed to implement the marginal losses component of locational marginal pricing, thereby foregoing significant overall market efficiencies in the PJM energy market as a whole, and causing unjust, unreasonable and unduly discriminatory market prices which substantially harm the PHI Companies.

The PHI Companies certify that a copy of the complaint has been served on PJM.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. The Respondent's answer and all interventions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. The Respondent's answer, motions to intervene, and protests must be served on the Complainants.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

This filing is accessible on-line at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the "eLibrary" link and is available for review in the Commission's Public Reference Room in Washington, DC. There is an "eSubscription" link on the Web site that enables subscribers to receive e-mail notification when a document is added to a subscribed docket(s). MMC Energy North America LLC, Complainant v. California Independent System Operator Corporation, Respondent; Notice of Complaint

March 3, 2006.

Take notice that on March 3, 2006, MMC Energy North America LLC (MMC) filed a complaint under section 206 of the Federal Power Act and Rule 206 of the Commission Rules of Practice and Procedure, alleging that the California Independent System Operator Corporation acted imprudently and in a preferential manner in its selection of generation units to meet Reliability Must Run requirements for 2006. MMC asks that a refund effective date be established within 60 days of the filing herein, and that further proceedings on the complaint be held in abeyance, pending resolution of arbitration.

MMC certifies that copies of the complaint were served on the contacts for CAISO as listed on the Commission's list of Corporate Officials.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. The Respondent's answer and all interventions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. The Respondent's answer, motions to intervene, and protests must be served on the Complainants.
