

to appropriate agencies, entities, and persons. This routine use will serve to protect the interests of any individual affected by a breach because it will enable OSHRC to take the steps necessary to facilitate a timely and effective response to the breach, thereby improving its ability to prevent, minimize, or remedy any harm resulting from a compromise of data maintained in its systems of records.

OSHRC's proposed blanket routine use is published below. The first ten blanket routine uses, which remain in effect, were last published in full text on April 14, 2006 at 71 FR 19556, 19558–59.

Blanket Routine Uses

(11) A record from an OSHRC system of records may be disclosed as a blanket routine use to appropriate agencies, entities, and persons when:

(a) OSHRC suspects or has confirmed that the security or confidentiality of information in the system of records has been compromised; and

(b) OSHRC has determined that as a result of the suspected or confirmed compromise there is a risk of harm to economic or property interests, identity theft or fraud, or harm to the security or integrity of this system or other systems or programs (whether maintained by OSHRC or another agency or entity) that rely upon the compromised information; and

(c) The disclosure made to such agencies, entities, and persons is reasonably necessary to assist in connection with OSHRC's efforts to respond to the suspected or confirmed compromise and prevent, minimize, or remedy such harm.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Securities Exchange Act of 1934; Release No. 58248/July 29, 2008]

Order Extending Emergency Order Pursuant to Section 12(k)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 Taking Temporary Action To Respond to Market Developments

On July 15, 2008, the Commission issued an Emergency Order Pursuant to Section 12(k)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 Taking Temporary Action to Respond to Market

Developments (the “Order”).¹ That Order took effect on July 21, 2008 and applies to the publicly traded securities of the substantial financial firms identified in Appendix A to the Order. The Commission updated the Order by an amendment dated July 18, 2008.² The Order, as amended (the “Emergency Order”), is currently set to terminate on July 29, 2008.

Pursuant to its authority under Section 12(k)(2)(C) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Exchange Act”), the Commission is extending the Emergency Order. Section 12(k)(2)(C) authorizes the Commission to extend an emergency order issued pursuant to Section 12(k)(2)(A) of the Exchange Act for a total effective period of up to 30 calendar days, if the Commission finds that the emergency still exists and determines that an extension is necessary in the public interest and for the protection of investors to maintain fair and orderly securities markets.

The Commission has carefully reevaluated the current state of the markets in consultation with officials of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Department of the Treasury and the Federal Reserve Bank of New York. We note that the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, in authorizing the creation of the temporary Primary Dealer Credit Facility (“PDCF”), was required to determine that “unusual and exigent circumstances” exist and that the PDCF remains available to the financial firms identified in Appendix A. The Commission continues to remain concerned about the ongoing threat of market disruption and effects on investor confidence, and has determined in this environment that the standards under Section 12(k)(2) for extending the Emergency Order have been met. Accordingly, the Commission has determined that extending the Emergency Order is in the public interest and necessary to maintain fair and orderly securities markets and for the protection of investors. Following expiration of the Emergency Order, the Commission will proceed immediately to consideration of rulemaking, which would become effective after notice and comment.

Therefore, it is ordered, pursuant to Section 12(k)(2)(C) of the Exchange Act, that the Emergency Order is extended such that it will terminate at 11:59 p.m. EDT on Tuesday, August 12, 2008.

² See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 58190 (July 18, 2008).

Acting Secretary.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 500–1]

Global Diamond Exchange, Inc.; Order of Suspension of Trading

July 31, 2008.

It appears to the Securities and Exchange Commission that the public interest and the protection of investors require a suspension of trading in the securities of Global Diamond Exchange, Inc. (“Global Diamond”) because there is a lack of current and accurate information concerning its securities. Questions have arisen concerning the company's current business operations, control of the company, and the company's reliance on Rule 504 of Regulation D of the Securities Act of 1933 in conducting a distribution of its securities. Global Diamond, a company that has made no public filings with the Commission, is quoted on the Pink Sheets under the ticker symbol GBDX.

The Commission is of the opinion that the public interest and the protection of investors require a suspension of trading in the securities of the above-listed company.

Therefore, it is ordered, pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, that trading in the above-listed company is suspended for the period from 9:30 a.m. EDT, July 31, 2008, through 11:59 p.m. EDT, on August 13, 2008.

By the Commission.

Florence E. Harmon,
Acting Secretary.
