SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: HUD

Student Loan Repayment Program (SLRP) is a popular tool used by the Department to attract or retain highly or uniquely qualified candidates into mission-critical positions and retain highly qualified employees in critical positions. If the employee is likely to leave for employment outside of the federal sector and the employee’s departure would affect the agency’s ability to carry out an activity or perform a function that is deemed essential to the accomplishment of a strategic goal and/or objective, the Department may agree to repay the lender (on behalf of the employee, all, or part of any outstanding federally insured student loan(s)). The operation of this program is contingent upon the availability of funds. The SLRP is offered on an annual basis to all HUD employees through the Department’s SharePoint site. Prior to the opening of the annual SLRP, all HUD employees are notified via email a “Save the Date” notification message; an electronic posting is uploaded on the Department’s HUD@Work website and poster boards are posted throughout the building. When applying, employees are encouraged to adhere to established timelines for consideration.
