

exchanges and between NYSE National and off-exchange market makers.

Broad dissemination of the RLI through the Consolidated Quotation System or the UTP Quote Data Feed, as applicable, should benefit retail customers by providing broker-dealers that route Retail Orders with limited supplemental information about the availability of price improvement opportunities for Retail Orders under the Program.¹⁵ To the extent the RLI is successful in attracting Retail Orders to the Program, the increased competition should benefit retail customers by providing a mechanism through which they can receive the better prices for their orders from willing liquidity providers. This exemption also should benefit market participants that seek the opportunity to interact directly with Retail Orders, as any liquidity provider may submit RPI Orders to provide better prices to retail customers on the Exchange. Quotations that Rule 602 requires to be included in an exchange's best bid and offer are used to establish the national best bid and offer for an NMS stock and are eligible for protection against trade-throughs under Rule 611 of Regulation NMS.¹⁶ Such quotations therefore must be accessible to all market participants on terms that are not unfair or unreasonably discriminatory. In contrast, access to RPI Order interest is limited to Retail Orders because many market participants may be willing to offer liquidity to retail investors at better prices than they would be willing to offer all market participants. RPI Order interest thereby can benefit retail investors by giving them an opportunity to receive better prices on exchanges, but it is unsuitable for other purposes, including establishing a national best bid and offer and eligibility for Rule 611 protection.

Accordingly, it is ordered, pursuant to Rule 602(d) of Regulation NMS, that NYSE National is exempt from Rule 602 of Regulation NMS with respect to NYSE National's Program specifically concerning the dissemination of the RLI to advertise the presence of RPI Order interest under the Program without including RPI Orders in the Exchange's quotation. This exemption is conditioned on the Exchange continuing to conduct the Program substantially as described in the Exchange's request for exemptive relief and the current applicable Exchange rules, including the dissemination of the RLI through the Consolidated Quotation System or the UTP Quote Data Feed, as applicable. Any changes thereto may cause the Commission to reconsider this exemption. The foregoing exemption is subject to modification or revocation at any time if the Commission determines that such action is necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Exchange Act.

For the Commission, by the Division of Trading and Markets pursuant to delegated authority.¹⁷

Assistant Secretary.
