Shell Energy North America (US), L.P.; Notice of Filing

December 5, 2008.

Take notice that on July 21, 2008, Shell Energy North America (US), L.P. (Shell) filed a request for clarification that its negotiated rate agreement with Tennessee Gas Pipeline Company (Tennessee), which was accepted in Docket No. RP96-312-144, qualifies for a regulatory right of first refusal. Shell asserts that, as a firm shipper currently paying the maximum tariff rate under a long term negotiated rate agreement, it should qualify for the regulatory right of first refusal established by Commission policy.

Shell filed its request for clarification in Docket Nos. RP96-312-144 and RM98-10. However, the Commission is re-docketing Shell's request as Docket No. RP08-648-000. The Commission is also re-docketing all subsequent pleadings relating to this matter in Docket No. RP08-648-000, and will treat the persons filing those pleadings as parties to this proceeding, without the need to file a motion to intervene.¹

Any other person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Anyone not already a party but wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. Anyone filing a motion to intervene or protest must serve a copy of that document on the Applicant and all the parties in this proceeding.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper, using the FERC Online links at <http://www.ferc.gov>.
