

these risks, if not adequately managed, could disrupt ICC's ability to clear and settle transactions in other products and safeguard securities and funds in its custody and control. Thus the Commission believes that, in directing ICC to select for clearing instruments that could allow Clearing Participants to hedge and mitigate their overall risk exposure, the proposed rule change could, in turn, result in a reduction of risk to ICC and thereby could help promote the prompt and accurate clearance and settlement of securities transactions and help assure the safeguarding of securities and funds in ICC's custody and control.

Therefore, the Commission finds that the proposed rule change would promote the prompt and accurate clearance and settlement of securities transactions and assure the safeguarding of securities and funds in ICC's custody and control, consistent with the Section 17A(b)(3)(F) of the Act.⁸

B. Consistency With Rule 17Ad-22(e)(21)

Rule 17Ad-22(e)(21) requires that ICC establish, implement, maintain and enforce written policies and procedures reasonably designed to, among other things, be efficient and effective in meeting the requirements of its participants and the markets it serves.⁹ As discussed above, the proposed rule change would add to the Instrument Onboarding Policy, as a further guiding principle, that ICC should consider selecting for clearing instruments that are constituents of the currently clearable OTR indices in order to provide Clearing Participants additional instruments to hedge and mitigate indirect risk exposure from the OTR indices. The Commission believes that this additional guiding principle should encourage ICC to select for clearing additional instruments that would serve the needs of its Clearing Participants in hedging and mitigating indirect risk exposure from the OTR indices. The Commission therefore believes this new guiding principle could help ICC to be effective in meeting the requirements of its participants, consistent with Rule 17Ad-22(e)(21).¹⁰

IV. Conclusion

On the basis of the foregoing, the Commission finds that the proposed rule change is consistent with the requirements of the Act, and in particular, with the requirements of

Section 17A(b)(3)(F) of the Act¹¹ and Rule 17Ad-22(e)(21).¹²

It is therefore ordered pursuant to Section 19(b)(2) of the Act¹³ that the proposed rule change (SR-ICC-2021-019) be, and hereby is, approved.¹⁴

For the Commission, by the Division of Trading and Markets, pursuant to delegated authority.¹⁵
