

elective, but most if not all funds use depository custody arrangements.¹⁰

The Commission staff estimates that, on an annual basis, about 471 funds¹¹ spend an average of 2 hours annually complying with the contract requirements of rule 17f-4. (e.g., signing contracts with additional custodians or securities depositories) for a total of 942 burden hours.

Rule 17f-4 requires that a custodian, upon request, provide a fund with any available reports on its internal accounting controls and financial strength. The Commission staff estimates that 130 custodians spend 12 hours annually in transmitting such reports to funds. In addition, approximately 47 funds (i.e., one percent of all funds) deal directly with a securities depository and may request periodic reports from their depository. The Commission staff estimates that, for each of the 47 funds, depositories spend 12 hours annually transmitting reports to the funds. The total annual burden estimate for compliance with rule 17f-4's reporting requirement is therefore 2,124 hours.

If a fund deals directly with a securities depository, rule 17f-4 requires that the fund implement internal control systems reasonably designed to prevent unauthorized officer's instructions (by providing at least for the form, content, and means of giving, recording, and reviewing all officer's instructions). The Commission staff estimates that 47 funds spend 10 hours annually implementing systems to prevent unauthorized officer's instructions, resulting in 470 burden hours for this requirement under rule 17f-4.

Based on the foregoing, the Commission staff estimates that the total annual hour burden of the rule's paperwork requirement is 3,536 hours.

The estimates of average burden hours are made solely for the purposes of the Paperwork Reduction Act. These estimates are not derived from a comprehensive or even a representative survey or study of the costs of Commission rules.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid control number.

¹⁰ The Commission staff estimates that more than 97 percent of all funds now use depository custody arrangements.

¹¹ Commission staff estimates that about 10 percent of all funds approve new depository custody arrangements yearly or a fund changes custodians (or securities depositories) every 10 years.

Submission for OMB Review; Comment Request

Upon Written Request, Copies Available From: Securities and Exchange Commission, Office of Filings and Information Services, Washington, DC 20549.

Extension: Rule 11Ac1-4, SEC File No. 270-405, OMB Control No. 3235-0462.

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.), the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") is soliciting comments on the collection of information summarized below. The Commission plans to submit this existing collection of information to the Office of Management and Budget for extension and approval.

Rule 11Ac1-4 (17 CFR 240.11Ac1-4) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires specialists and market makers to publicly display a customer limit order when that limit order is priced superior to the quote that is currently being displayed by the specialist or market maker. Customer limit orders that match the bid or offer being displayed by the specialist or market maker must also be displayed if the limit order price matches the national best bid or offer. It is estimated that approximately 585 broker and dealer respondents incur an aggregate burden of 228,735 hours per year to comply with this rule.

Rule 11Ac1-4 does not contain record retention requirements. Compliance with the rule is mandatory. Responses are not confidential. An agency may not conduct or sponsor and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid control number.

General comments regarding the above information should be directed to the following persons: (i) Desk Officer for the SEC, by sending an e-mail to David_Rostker@omb.eop.gov, and (ii) R. Corey Booth, Director/Chief Information Officer. Comments must be submitted to OMB within 30 days of this notice.

Dated: October 4, 2004.
