Navajo Nation Liquor Regulations

AGENCY: Bureau of Indian Affairs, Interior.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This notice publishes the Secretary's certification of the Navajo Nation Liquor Regulations. These Regulations regulate and control the possession, sale and consumption of liquor within the Navajo Nation. The Navajo Nation is located on extensive reservation lands, and these Regulations establish a legal framework for licensing the transportation and sale of alcoholic beverages within the exterior boundaries of the Nation. These regulations will ensure the ability of the tribal government to control the distribution and possession of liquor within the reservation and at the same time will provide an important source of revenue. These Regulations provide solely for civil enforcement (fines) imposed on parties whose actions are subject to the licensing provisions set forth herein. Any violation of these regulations may also result in prosecution under other sections of the Navajo Nation Code, or under relevant State or Federal law.

DATES: Effective Date: These Regulations are effective as of December 24, 2008.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Pursuant to the Act of August 15, 1953; Public Law 83-277, 67 Stat. 586, 18 U.S.C. 1161, as interpreted by the Supreme Court in Rice v. Rehner, 463 U.S. 713 (1983), the Secretary of the Interior shall certify and publish in the Federal Register notice of adopted liquor ordinances for the purpose of regulating liquor transactions in Indian country.

The Navajo Nation is governed by the Navajo Nation Council, which has developed a comprehensive legal code (the Navajo Nation Code, N.N.C.). Title 17, subchapter 12, of the N.N.C. bars the transportation, sale, and consumption of alcoholic beverages on the Navajo Reservation. Section 412 of Title 17 sets out exceptions to the prohibitions in the title.

In 2001, the Council amended 17 N.N.C. section 412 to permit use of alcohol at the Antelope Point Development Area of the Navajo Nation, and the Glen Canyon National Recreation Area. (Resolution CYJ-62-01). In 2008, the Council again amended 17 N.N.C. section 412, to authorize transportation, sale, delivery and consumption on the Navajo Reservation at authorized casinos. (Resolution CJA-03-08, passed by the Council January 31, 2008, and signed into law by the President of the Navajo Nation on February 11, 2008). By the same resolution, the Council delegated the authority to promulgate liquor regulations to the Navajo Tax Commission.

The following Liquor Regulations were adopted and approved by the Navajo Nation Tax Commission by Resolution TAX-08-208.

This notice is published in accordance with the authority delegated by the Secretary of the Interior to the Assistant Secretary—Indian Affairs. I certify that these Liquor Regulations of the Navajo Nation were promulgated by the Navajo Tax Commission pursuant to the authority vested in the Commission by the Navajo Nation Council by Resolution CJA-03-08.

Pre-hearing orders will control the course of the hearing.

c. At the request of the parties, the hearing officer shall issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses at hearings and for production of books, records, maps, documents, or physical evidence. Any witness subject to a subpoena may petition the hearing officer to vacate or modify the subpoena served on the witness. The hearing officer shall promptly notify the party who requested the subpoena and proceed to rule on the petition. The hearing officer may investigate the grounds of the petition or, upon the petition itself, may deny or grant the petition, in whole or in part. iv. Any privileges that apply in civil actions before Navajo courts shall be followed.

v. Any relevant evidence, including affidavits and other forms of hearsay, shall be admitted if such evidence is of the sort upon which responsible persons are accustomed to rely in the conduct of serious affairs. The hearing officer shall be liberal in admitting evidence, but objections to its admission, and comments or observations of its weight, are relevant in weighing the evidence. The hearing officer may deny admission of evidence that is irrelevant, untrustworthy, or unduly repetitious.

vi. All evidence will be offered and made part of the record and the hearing officer shall not consider any other factual information, except for matters officially noticed.

vii. Where after proper notice a Person or its authorized representative fails to appear, the hearing officer may proceed with the hearing, dispose of the issues raised, and enter a final order.

viii. Reasonable continuances may be granted for good cause.

ix. Prior to entering an order, the hearing officer will afford the parties a reasonable time in which to submit any post-hearing memoranda, proposed findings of fact, and proposed conclusions of law.

e. The hearing conducted under this part concludes when the hearing officer enters findings of fact, conclusions of law, and a final order. The final order issued by the hearing officer shall be a matter of public record, and all final orders issued shall be available for public inspection.

f. A party may file a petition for rehearing. Such petition will allege as grounds for rehearing either a mistake of law or fact, or the discovery of new evidence which by due diligence could not have been discovered by the party at the time of the hearing. The petition must set out in some detail the mistake in law or fact claimed, or summarize the new evidence that has become available, specifically mentioning the source of such evidence and what it would tend to establish. The hearing officer will have wide discretion in accepting or rejecting such petitions.

3. The decision of the hearing officer entered under this part may be appealed to the Navajo Supreme Court within 30 days. If not timely appealed, the hearing officer's order is binding on the parties and may not be appealed to any court.

a. The rules of Appellate Procedure of the Navajo Supreme Court shall govern the conduct of appeals from orders of the hearing officer rendered under this section.

b. Appeal to the Navajo Supreme Court shall be limited to the record on appeal.

c. The record on appeal will be based on the findings, conclusions, and order of the hearing officer.

C. In all administrative and judicial proceedings governed by this section, the orders, assessments, factual findings, and legal conclusions of the Office are presumed correct unless the Person filing the appeal demonstrates otherwise. In all factual hearings, the Person filing the appeal has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence the existence of an asserted fact, except where another standard is provided by statute or these Liquor Regulations.

Bureau of Reclamation

Yakima River Basin Water Storage Feasibility Study; Benton, Yakima, and Kittitas Counties, Washington INT-FES 08-65

AGENCY: Bureau of Reclamation, Interior.

ACTION: Notice of Availability of the Final Planning Report and Environmental Impact Statement.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to section 102(2)(C) of the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) of 1969, as amended, the Bureau of Reclamation (Reclamation) has prepared a combined Final Planning Report and Environmental Impact Statement (Final PR/EIS) on the Yakima River Basin Water Storage Feasibility Study (Storage Study). The cooperating agencies on this study are the Washington Department of Ecology (Ecology), Yakima County, the U.S. Department of the Army: Yakima Training Center and the Seattle District of the U.S. Corps of Engineers, and the U.S. Department of Energy: Office of River Protection.

The purpose of the Storage Study is to evaluate alternatives that would create additional water storage for the Yakima River Basin and assess their potential to supply the water needed for ecosystem aquatic habitat, basin-wide agriculture, and municipal demands. The need for the study is based on the existing finite water supply and limited storage capability of the Yakima River Basin in low water years. This finite supply and limited storage capacity do not meet the water supply demands in all years and result in significant adverse impact to the Yakima River Basin's economy, which is agriculture-based, and to the basin's aquatic habitat, specifically, anadromous fisheries. The study seeks to identify means of increasing water storage available, including storage of Columbia River water, for purposes of improving anadromous fish habitat and meeting irrigation and municipal water supply needs.

DATES: Written comments on the Final PR/EIS will be accepted through February 2, 2009.

ADDRESSES: Written comments on the Final PR/EIS should be addressed to the Bureau of Reclamation, Upper Columbia Area Office, Attention: David Kaumheimer, Environmental Programs Manager, 1917 Marsh Road, Yakima, Washington 98901-2058. Comments may also be submitted electronically to storagestudy@pn.usbr.gov. Requests for paper or CD copies of the Final PR/EIS may be made to (509) 575-5848, ext. 612.

See the SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION section on public review for locations where copies of the Final PR/EIS are available for public review. Information on this project can also be found at http://www.usbr.gov/pn/programs/storage_study/index.html.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background Information

Reclamation has undertaken this study to explore ways to augment water supplies in the Yakima River Basin for the benefit of anadromous fish, irrigated agriculture, and municipal water supply under the authority of Public Law 108-7, Title II, Section 214 which was passed by Congress on February 20, 2003. Public Law 108-7 states:

The Secretary of the Interior, acting through the Bureau of Reclamation, shall conduct a feasibility study of options for additional water storage in the Yakima River Basin, Washington, with emphasis on the feasibility of storage of Columbia River water in the potential Black Rock Reservoir and the benefit of additional storage to endangered and threatened fish, irrigated agriculture, and municipal water supply. There are authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary to carry out this Act.

Ecology was a joint lead with Reclamation in the preparation of the Draft PR/EIS, in order to meet compliance under the State Environmental Policy Act (SEPA). However, they elected to become a cooperating agency on the Final PR/EIS as they believe they may not have fulfilled their requirements under Washington State law to identify and evaluate all reasonable water supply
