

allow a request for waiver of the fees required for certain immigration benefit requests. However, where the new specific language in HR–1 states that the fees “shall not be waived or reduced” DHS interprets HR–1 as superseding section 245(l)(7), 1255(l)(7), for purposes of the new fees imposed by HR–1. Although a waiver of the USCIS fee under 8 CFR 106.3(a)(3)(iii) of the fee required by 8 CFR 106.2(a) may be requested, USCIS will not waive such a fee required by HR–1 and a request for such may not be submitted.

E. HR–1 Fees Not in the Notice

This notice does not announce all of the fees required or authorized by HR–1. DHS will announce the collection of any fees not covered in this notice in a future action. USCIS is not announcing certain fees required by HR–1 in this notice as follows:

- The IMMIGRATION PAROLE FEE required by section 100004 (parole fee) of HR–1. HR–1 contains multiple exceptions to the requirement for the parole fee and DHS must interpret how the exceptions should be applied. DHS will announce the parole fee in a future publication.
- The VISA INTEGRITY FEE required by section 100007 of HR–1 for any alien issued a nonimmigrant visa at the time of such issuance. The VISA INTEGRITY FEE requires cross-agency coordination before implementing; the fee will be implemented in a future publication.
- The FORM I–94 FEE required by section 100008 of HR–1 is required from any alien who submits an application for a Form I–94 Arrival/Departure Record. DHS will be issuing guidance on the Form I–94 fee requirements in a future publication.
- The ELECTRONIC SYSTEM FOR TRAVEL AUTHORIZATION (ESTA) fee required by section 100014 of HR–1. These are not USCIS administered fees.
- The ELECTRONIC VISA UPDATE SYSTEM FEE required by section 100015 (Visa update fee) and the FEE FOR ALIENS ORDERED REMOVED IN ABSENTIA (in absentia fee) required by section 100016 are not USCIS administered fees.

DHS will continue to work toward implementation of the remaining fees applicable to USCIS, specifically: (1) fees related to Form I–131, Application for Travel Documents, Parole Documents, and Arrival/Departure Records, and (2) Form I–102, Application for Replacement/Initial Nonimmigrant Arrival-Departure Document.

1105a, 1229b(b)(2), and 1254a(a)(3) of this title (as in effect on March 31, 1997).”

III. Effective Date and Implementation

DHS recognizes that HR–1 became effective upon Presidential signature on July 4, 2025, and we are working to implement the statutory mandates as soon as practicable. This notice explains how we will collect the required fees. While that work is ongoing, and in an effort to implement the plain terms of HR–1 as quickly as possible, USCIS will begin collecting the filing fees for fiscal year 2025 for any immigration benefit requests postmarked on or after July 22, 2025. In addition, DHS has balanced the impact on the public of imposing HR–1 fees and the timeliness of complying with the statutory mandates. Because of the time needed by DHS and USCIS to issue guidance on and operationalize the required fees, and for the public to adapt their immigration benefit requests that are in process to the changes, requests postmarked on or after August 21, 2025 without the proper filing fee will be rejected. DHS has determined that the policy required by this Notice is the most equitable path forward in order to effectuate HR–1 as expeditiously as practicable. The HR–1 fees are required by law, but for additional clarity, DHS may codify these fees in 8 CFR part 106 in a future rule.

IV. Paperwork Reduction Act

This notice is not subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act, 44 U.S.C. 3501–3521 (PRA). The PRA does not preclude the imposition of a penalty on an entity for failing to comply with a collection of information that is imposed on the entity by statute. See 5 CFR 1320.6(e).

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: To request additional information about this information collection request (ICR), contact Kerim Dickson by email at kdickson@usbr.gov, or by telephone at (702) 293-8574. Individuals in the United States who are deaf, deafblind, hard of hearing, or have a speech disability may dial 711 (TTY, TDD, or TeleBraille) to access telecommunications relay services. Individuals outside the United States should use the relay services offered within their country to make international calls to the point-of-contact in the United States. You may also view the ICR at www.reginfo.gov/public/do/PRAMain.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA, 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.) and 5 CFR 1320.8(d)(1), we provide the general public and other Federal agencies with an opportunity to comment on new, proposed, revised, and continuing collections of information. This helps us assess the impact of our information collection requirements and minimize the public's reporting burden. It also helps the public understand our information collection requirements and provide the requested data in the desired format.

A Federal Register notice with a 60-day public comment period soliciting comments on this collection of information was published on May 16, 2025 (90 FR 21075). The following supportive comment was received:

The Arizona Department of Water Resources (ADWR) supports the Bureau of Reclamation's (Reclamation) renewal of the Lower Colorado River Well Inventory information collection pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, 44 U.S.C. 3501. ADWR relies on information collected by the Bureau of Reclamation for the proper accounting of diversions and consumptive uses of the Colorado River in the Lower Basin, which ensures compliance with the Supreme Court's decision in Arizona v. California, 547 U.S. 150 (2006). Without the information collected under the subject Federal Register notice (90 FR 21075), Reclamation's role in administering the waters of the lower Colorado River would be significantly undermined. In particular, without adequate reporting requirements in Arizona for groundwater use outside of designated Active Management Areas, Reclamation's information collection provides vital information that is not available elsewhere.

No changes to the information collection are necessitated by this comment.

As part of our continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burdens, we are again soliciting comments from the public and other Federal agencies on the proposed ICR that is described below. We are especially interested in public comment addressing the following:

(1) Whether or not the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether or not the information will have practical utility;

(2) The accuracy of our estimate of the burden for this collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(3) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) How might the agency minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of
