Title: Consumer Confidence Reports for Water Systems Information Collection Request (OMB Control No. 2040–0201; EPA ICR No. 1832.02), expiring 9/30/01.

Abstract: Section 114 of the Safe Drinking Water Act (SDWA) of 1996, enacted August 6, 1996, amended section 1414(c) of the Act to require community water systems (CWSs) to send an annual Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) to their customers. EPA codified these provisions under subpart O of 40 CFR part 141, the Consumer Confidence Report Rule. The CCR Rule requires, at a minimum, that each CWS mail to each of its customers an annual report on quality of drinking water provided by the system. The information in the report is information that the CWS already collects pursuant to other drinking water regulations. Reports must contain information on the source of water provided, levels of detected contaminants, violations of any national primary drinking water regulations, and health information concerning drinking water and potential risks from detected contaminants. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and
