

left in an inadequate reclamation status prior to the date of enactment of this Act [August 3, 1977], and for which there is no continuing reclamation responsibility under State or other Federal laws.

There must be demonstrated public support for the project. The project should propose to use proven or innovative technology that has a high probability of success. The project design must propose tangible results, e.g., fishery restored, stream miles improved, educational and community benefits, pollutants removed from the streams. The funds must be used for the preliminary design phase of a project; reimbursement of administrative costs will be carefully scrutinized.

One copy of a complete application should be submitted to the appropriate Appalachian Clean Streams Coordinator identified under ADDRESSES AND FURTHER INFORMATION or directly to the Arts and Appalachian Clean Streams Program, Office of Surface Mining, 1951 Constitution Avenue NW., Room 120, Washington, DC 20240. Awards are subject to the availability of funds. Applications will receive technical and financial management reviews.

Dated: February 15, 2000.

Kathy Karpan,

Director, Office of Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation No. 731-TA-459 (Review)]

Polyethylene Terephthalate (PET) Film From Korea

Determination

On the basis of the record ¹ developed in the subject five-year review, the United States International Trade Commission determines,² pursuant to section 751(c) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1675(c)) (the Act), that revocation of the antidumping duty order on PET film from Korea would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time.

Background

The Commission instituted this review on July 1, 1999 (64 FR 35685) and determined on October 1, 1999, that

¹ The record is defined in sec. 207.2(f) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 207.2(f)).

² Commissioner Thelma J. Askey dissenting.

it would conduct an expedited review (64 FR 55958, October 15, 1999). The Commission transmitted its determination in this review to the Secretary of Commerce on February 16, 2000. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 3278 (February 2000), entitled Polyethylene Terephthalate (PET) Film from Korea: Investigation No. 731-TA-459 (Review).

Issued: February 16, 2000.

By order of the Commission.
