

("I") which expressly provides that information relating to individuals who have been denied a firearm by the NICS may be provided to federal, states, local, joint, tribal, foreign, international, or other public agencies/organizations for the furtherance of law enforcement interests. Proposed firearm transfers are denied by the NICS when available information demonstrates that the prospective transferee is disqualified from possessing a firearm under federal or state law. Law enforcement agencies may use this information to investigate possible violations of federal and/or state law with regard to the attempted purchase of the firearm, as well as for other law enforcement uses that could have significant public safety benefits.

Accordingly, the system of records is modified as provided below.

Dated: December 6, 2000.

Stephen R. Colgate,

Assistant Attorney General for Administration.

Justice/FBI-018

SYSTEM NAME:

National Instant Criminal Background Check System (NICS).

* * * * *

ACTION:

The system notice published in the Federal Register on November 25, 1998 (63 FR 65223), is amended as follows:

1. In the section titled "Category of Individuals Covered by the System," subsection E is revised, and subsection L is amended by replacing the first two sentences with three new sentences, to read as follows:

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

* * * * *

E. Is an alien who is illegally or unlawfully in the United States or who has been admitted to the United States under a non-immigrant visa.

* * * * *

L. Has applied for the transfer of a firearm or for a firearms-related permit or license and has had his or her name forwarded to the NICS as part of a request for a NICS background check. (Identifying information about this category of individuals is maintained for system administration and security purposes in the "NICS Audit Log," a system transaction log described below under the headings "CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM" AND "RETENTION AND DISPOSAL." Identifying information may also be maintained in appeals files for those individuals who have requested the reason for a denial or delay from the FBI, or from a law enforcement agency serving as a POC, and/or challenged the accuracy or validity of a disqualifying record or otherwise inquired about a NICS transaction. * * *

2. The section titled "Categories of Records in the System" is amended by adding a new paragraph at the end to read as follows:

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

* * * * *

The NICS also contains "appeals records" which reflect inquiries by individuals regarding the reason for a delay or denial by the FBI or a POC, and/or challenges to the accuracy or validity of a disqualifying record, or other types of inquiries made by individuals about a NICS transaction.

3. The section titled "Routine Uses of Records Maintained in the System, Including Categories of Users and the Purposes of Such Uses" is amended by adding an introductory paragraph and a new subparagraph ("I") at the end to read as follows:

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

The FBI may disclose relevant system records to the following persons or entities under the circumstances or for the purposes described below, to the extent such disclosures are compatible with the purpose for which the information was collected. (Routine uses are not meant to be mutually exclusive and may overlap in some cases.)

* * * * *

I. Information pertaining to individuals who have been denied a firearm by the NICS may be disclosed, either electronically or otherwise, to a federal, state, local, joint, tribal, foreign, international, or other public agency/organization where such disclosure may promote, assist, or otherwise serve law enforcement interests. By way of example and not limitation, such disclosures may, for instance, include posting all NICS denials on a centralized database that would be electronically accessible to law enforcement agencies.

Agency Information Collection Activities: Proposed Collection; Comment Request

ACTION: Notice of information collection under review; new collection national evaluation of the safe schools/healthy students initiative.

The Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, has submitted the following information collection request to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for review and clearance in accordance with emergency review procedures of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. OMB approval has been requested by December 22, 2000. The proposed information collection is published to obtain comments from the public and affected agencies. If granted, the emergency approval is only valid for 180 days. Comments should be directed to OMB, Office of Information Regulation Affairs, Attention: Department of Justice Desk Officer (202) 395-7860, Washington, DC 20530.

During the first 60 days of this same review period, a regular review of this information collection is also being undertaken. All comments and suggestions, or questions regarding additional information, to include obtaining a copy of the proposed information collection instrument with instructions, should be directed to Kellie J. Dressler, Program Manager, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, 810 7th Street, NW, Washington DC 20531, or facsimile at (202) 353-9096.

Request written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies concerning the proposed collection of information. Your comments should address one or more of the following four points:

(1) Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(3) Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

Overview of This Information

(1) Type of Information Collection: Application for new collection effort.
