

Accordingly, all uses prohibited under the Wilderness Act within Drakes Estero have ceased as of 11:59 p.m. on November 30, 2012. Drakes Estero is entirely in federal ownership. Pursuant to Section 3 of Public Law 94–567, publication of this notice hereby effects the change in status of 1,363 acres of Drakes Estero, more or less, from potential wilderness to designated wilderness. A map showing this change is on file at the headquarters of Point Reyes National Seashore, Point Reyes Station, CA 94956.

With publication of this notice, the total designated wilderness within Point Reyes National Seashore encompasses 27,315 acres, more or less. The potential wilderness remaining within the national seashore consists of 5,415 acres, more or less. The remaining potential wilderness will remain as such until publication of a notice that uses conflicting with the provisions of the Wilderness Act have ceased.

Note that the total wilderness acreage cited in the November 18, 1999, notice was based on the acreage reported in Section 1 of Public Law 94–567. The total wilderness acreage cited in this notice is based on the maps filed with the committee under Section 2 of Public Law 94–567 and the May 1978 survey of the Point Reyes Wilderness. The National Park Service believes that the acreage calculation based on the maps and survey is more accurate than the acreage reported in Section 1 of the Act.

Note further that in Public Law 99–68, approved on July 1985, Congress designated that the wilderness area of Point Reyes National Seashore was to be known as the “Phillip Burton Wilderness.” Drakes Estero is hereby added to the Phillip Burton Wilderness.

Dated: November 30, 2012.
