OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET

Compliance Assistance Resources and Points of Contact Available to Small Businesses

AGENCY: Office of Management and Budget, Executive Office of the President.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Small Business Paperwork Relief Act of 2002 (44 U.S.C. 3520), the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) is publishing a "list of the compliance assistance resources available to small businesses" and a list of the points of contacts in agencies "to act as a liaison between the agency and small business concerns" with respect to the collection of information and the control of paperwork. This information is posted on the following Web site: <http://www.business.gov/business-law/contacts/federal/>

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Wendy Liberante, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, E-mail: wliberante@omb.eop.gov, Telephone: (202) 395-3647. Inquiries may be submitted by facsimile to (202) 395-5167.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Small Business Paperwork Relief Act of 2002 (Pub. L. 107-198) requires OMB to "publish in the Federal Register and make available on the Internet (in consultation with the Small Business Administration) on an annual basis a list of the compliance assistance resources available to small businesses" (44 U.S.C. 3504(c)(6)). OMB has, with the active assistance and support of the Small Business Administration (SBA) and Business.gov, assembled a list of the compliance assistance resources available to small businesses. This list is available today on the following Web site: <http://www.business.gov/business-law/contacts/federal/>. There is also a link to this information on the OMB Web site.

In addition, under another provision of this Act, "each agency shall, with respect to the collection of information and the control of paperwork, establish 1 point of contact in the agency to act as a liaison between the agency and small business concerns" (44 U.S.C. 3506(i)(1)). These contacts are also available at <http://www.business.gov/business-law/contacts/federal/>.

OMB and SBA have chosen to implement this statutory responsibility by publishing agency compliance contact information on Business.gov Web site. Business.gov delivers compliance information to the public more effectively than having businesses go to individual agency Web sites, thereby improving the probability of success for business owners and agency regulatory programs. The public is not only able to find agency points of contact for compliance under the "contacts and help" tab on Business.gov, but when users look for information in the "small business guides" on particular topics, the relevant agency points of contact automatically appear as part of the guide.

Cass Sunstein,

Administrator, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs.

Section 552) to create an Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) within the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA). OGIS's mission is to review policies and procedures of administrative agencies under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) and their compliance with FOIA by agencies; offer mediation services to resolve disputes between persons making FOIA requests and agencies (nonexclusive alternative to litigation); and serve as ombudsman, i.e. solicit and receive comments and questions from Federal agencies and the public regarding the administration of FOIA to improve FOIA processes and facilitate communication between agencies and FOIA requesters.

The notice for this system of records states the name and the location of the record system, the authority for and manner of its operation, the categories of individuals that it covers, the types of records that it contains, the sources of information in the records, and the proposed "routine uses" of the system of records. The notice also includes the business address of the NARA official who will inform interested persons of the procedures whereby they may gain access to, and correct, records pertaining to themselves.

One of the purposes of the Privacy Act, as stated in section 2(b)(4) of the Act, is to provide certain safeguards for an individual against an invasion of personal privacy by requiring Federal agencies to disseminate any record of identifiable personal information in a manner that assures that such action is for a necessary and lawful purpose, that the information is current and accurate for its intended use, and the adequate safeguards are provided to prevent misuse of such information. NARA intends to follow these principles in transferring information to another agency or individual as a "routine use," including assurance that the information is relevant for the purposes for which it is transferred.
