

investors and the public interest. The Phlx has requested that the Commission waive the 30-day operative delay. In order to allow the pilot to continue on an uninterrupted basis, the Commission believes waiving the 30-day operative date is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest.²⁶ In addition, the Commission notes that the Exchange represents that, since the commencement of the pilot, it has not experienced any issues relating to capacity or its ability to receive, route, and automatically execute orders for the account(s) of broker-dealers via AUTOM. For these reasons, the Commission designates the proposal to be effective and operative on October 15, 2002.

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, as amended, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.²⁷

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Persons making written submissions should file six copies thereof with the Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, NW., Washington, DC 20549-0609. Copies of the submission, all subsequent amendments, all written statements with respect to the proposed rule change that are filed with the Commission, and all written communications relating to the proposed rule change between the Commission and any person, other than those that may be withheld from the public in accordance with the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552, will be available for inspection and copying in the Commission's Public Reference Room. Copies of such filing will also be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of the Phlx.

All submissions should refer to File No. SR-Phlx-2002-50 and should be submitted by November 12, 2002.

²⁶ For purposes only of accelerating the operative date of this proposal, the Commission has considered the proposed rule's impact on efficiency, competition, and capital formation. 15 U.S.C. 78c(f).

²⁷ See note supra.

For the Commission, by the Division of Market Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.²⁸
