

m. Individuals desiring to be included on the Commission's mailing list should so indicate by writing to the Secretary of the Commission.

n. Comments, Protests, or Motions to Intervene—Anyone may submit comments, a protest, or a motion to intervene in accordance with the requirements of Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 CFR 385.210, .211, .214. In determining the appropriate action to take, the Commission will consider all protests or other comments filed, but only those who file a motion to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules may become a party to the proceeding. Any comments, protests, or motions to intervene must be received on or before the specified comment date for the particular application.

o. Filing and Service of Responsive Documents—Any filings must bear in all capital letters the title "COMMENTS", "PROTEST", OR "MOTION TO INTERVENE", as applicable, and the Project Number of the particular application to which the filing refers. A copy of any motion to intervene must also be served upon each representative of the Applicant specified in the particular application.

p. Agency Comments—Federal, state, and local agencies are invited to file comments on the described application. A copy of the application may be obtained by agencies directly from the Applicant. If an agency does not file comments within the time specified for filing comments, it will be presumed to have no comments. One copy of an agency's comments must also be sent to the Applicant's representative.

February 16, 2005.

Take notice that the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission is meeting with representatives of Indian tribal governments, the Western Area Power Authority, and Basin Electric Power Cooperative on Wednesday, February 23, 2005, to discuss general and regional issues regarding the development and interconnection of tribal wind energy resources. Topics related to the above dockets may be discussed at this meeting. This notice is being published pursuant to section 3(a) of the government in the Sunshine Act (Pub. L. 94-409), 5 U.S.C. 552b (2004).

The meeting will be held from 3 pm to 6 pm (CST) in Aurora Ballroom #3 at the Alerus Center, 1200 42nd Street South, Grand Forks, North Dakota 58201. Commission members and staff will participate in this meeting.

Be advised that concurrently with this meeting, the Alerus Center will be hosting a Renewable Energy Conference. Registration for the Renewable Energy Conference, sponsored by University of North Dakota Energy and Environmental Research Center and others, is not required for attendance at the Commission's meeting with Indian tribes. Information regarding the Renewable Energy Conference can be obtained at <http://www.undeerc.org/reconference>.

Members of the public may attend the Commission's meeting, however, participation will be limited to tribal representatives, Commission representatives, the Western Area Power Authority, and Basin Electric Power Cooperative.

The following is an overview of the meeting agenda, a more detail agenda will be distributed at the meeting:

3 p.m. to 4:15 p.m. Issues related to the development and interconnection of wind energy resources
4:15 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Break
4:30 p.m. to 6 p.m. Wind interconnection issues in the Upper Midwest

The goal of this meeting is to further the Commission's, Western Area Power Authority's, and Basin Electric Power Cooperative's understanding of Indian tribes' interests and concerns regarding the development and interconnection of wind energy resources. This meeting will not be transcribed. If meeting participants, or public observers, would like to include comments in the record for any particular Commission proceeding regarding topics addressed at this meeting, such comments must be filed with the Commission in the appropriate docket.

Registration is not required to attend this meeting, however, meeting participants and public observers are encouraged to contact Rollie Wilson, the Commission's Tribal Liaison at 202-502-8787, or rollie.wilson@ferc.gov, to help ensure adequate meeting space, discuss meeting topics, or any other questions.

[Docket No. RM98-1-000]

Records Governing Off-the Record Communications; Public Notice

February 18, 2005.

This constitutes notice, in accordance with 18 CFR 385.2201(b), of the receipt of prohibited and exempt off-the-record communications.

Order No. 607 (64 FR 51222, September 22, 1999) requires Commission decisional employees, who make or receive a prohibited or exempt off-the-record communication relevant to the merits of a contested proceeding, to deliver to the Secretary, a copy of the communication, if written, or a summary of the substance of any oral communication.

Prohibited communications are included in a public, non-decisional file associated with, but not a part of, the decisional record of the proceeding. Unless the Commission determines that the prohibited communication and any responses thereto should become a part
