BILLING CODE 6718-08-P

FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

Formations of, Acquisitions by, and Mergers of Bank Holding Companies

The companies listed in this notice have applied to the Board for approval, pursuant to the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. 1841 et seq.) (BHC Act), Regulation Y (12 CFR Part 225), and all other applicable statutes and regulations to become a bank holding company and/or to acquire the assets or the ownership of, control of, or the power to vote shares of a bank or bank holding company and all of the banks and nonbanking companies owned by the bank holding company, including the companies listed below.

The applications listed below, as well as other related filings required by the Board, are available for immediate inspection at the Federal Reserve Bank indicated. The application also will be available for inspection at the offices of the Board of Governors. Interested persons may express their views in writing on the standards enumerated in the BHC Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(c)). If the proposal also involves the acquisition of a nonbanking company, the review also includes whether the acquisition of the nonbanking company complies with the standards in section 4 of the BHC Act (12 U.S.C. 1843). Unless otherwise noted, nonbanking activities will be conducted throughout the United States. Additional information on all bank holding companies may be obtained from the National Information Center website at www.ffiec.gov/nic/.

Unless otherwise noted, comments regarding each of these applications must be received at the Reserve Bank indicated or the offices of the Board of Governors not later than May 26, 2000.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

[Program Announcement 00047]

Cooperative Agreement to Test, Disseminate, and Evaluate (A) Educational Materials and Messages, and (B) Training Programs Concerning Prevention and Control of Viral Hepatitis; Notice of Availability of Funds

A. Purpose

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) announces the availability of fiscal year (FY) 2000 funds for a cooperative agreement program to test, disseminate, and evaluate educational materials and messages for prevention and control of viral hepatitis, and/or to develop, implement, and evaluate training programs for health professionals to address prevention and control of viral hepatitis. CDC is committed to achieving the health promotion and disease prevention objectives of "Healthy People 2010," a national activity to reduce morbidity and mortality and improve the quality of life. This announcement is related to the focus areas of Immunization and Infectious Diseases. For the conference copy of "Healthy People 2010", visit the internet site <http://www.health.gov/healthypeople>.

The purpose of the program is to evaluate and disseminate health education materials and messages and develop and implement training programs that will lead to reduction of the incidence of viral hepatitis in the United States (U.S.) through an increased awareness of viral hepatitis among health professionals, high risk populations, and the general public. One goal of this program is to assist national health organizations in testing and disseminating accurate information on viral hepatitis to target audiences (i.e., at-risk populations, patients, and the general public). A second goal of the program is to aid national and regional health organizations in training and educating health care professionals to prevent and control the spread of viral hepatitis. Through testing, dissemination, and evaluation of accurate educational materials and messages, the following objectives can be met: (1) Increase the target population's awareness of risk factors for and ways to prevent infection with viral hepatitis, and (2) increase the number of persons at high risk of
