

(ii) Were less than ninety days delinquent on the last installment payment due before March 16, 1998; or

(iii) Had pending properly filed grace period requests under the former installment payment rules ("Eligible Licensees").

The Commission permitted Eligible Licensees to choose between three options: (a) Reamortization and Resumption of Payments; (b) Amnesty; or (c) Prepayment. Eligible Licenses that fail to submit an election with respect to any license by Election Day will be assumed to have elected Amnesty.

2. On December 28, 1999, a Preliminary Implementation Procedures, Public Notice (15 FCC Rcd. 22) was issued which announced that Eligible Licensees had to make their elections by 7:00 p.m., Tuesday, February 29, 2000.

3. The Commission has received various petitions for reconsideration of the 218–219 MHz Order. In order to address the issues raised in the petitions for reconsideration sufficiently in advance of Election Day, the Commission has determined to change the Election Day. The new date will be the last, business day of the first full month after an Order on the petitions for reconsideration is released by the Commission. A public notice announcing the new election date will be issued after the Order addressing the petitions is released.

4. Documents related to this rule making proceeding and its implementation may be found on the Federal Communications Commission web site located at <http://www.fcc.gov/wtb/auctions/218rest/218rest.html>.

Acceptance of Applications for Amateur Service Club and Military Recreation Station Call Sign Administrators AGENCY: Federal Communications Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This document announces that the Commission will accept requests from organizations interested in processing applications for amateur service club and military recreation station call signs. An organization requesting designation as a "Club Station Call Sign Administrator" will be permitted to process applications for amateur service club and military recreation station call signs.

DATES: Requests may be filed on or after March 1, 2000.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: William T. Cross, Public Safety and Private Wireless Division, Wireless Telecommunications Bureau, (202) 418–0680.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Public Notice released on January 3, 2000, announced that the Commission will accept requests from organizations interested in processing applications for amateur service club and military recreation station call signs. On October 21, 1998, the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) adopted a Report and Order, 63 FR 68904, 12/14/98, reinstituting the use of volunteer organizations for the purpose of processing applications for amateur service club and military recreation station call sign. A club station license is an amateur service station license granted only to the trustee of an amateur service club, which must be composed of at least four persons and have a name, a document of organization, management, and a primary purpose devoted to amateur service activities consistent with part 97 of the FCC's rules. A military recreation station license is an amateur service station license granted only to the person who is the license custodian designated by the official in charge of the United States military recreational premises where the station is situated.

The purpose of this Public Notice is to announce that beginning March 1, 2000, the FCC will accept requests from organizations interested in processing applications for amateur service club and military recreation station call signs. Requests received before this date will not be considered. We will accept the services of any organization meeting the requirements of section 4(g)(3)(B) of the Communications Act. Organizations interested in processing applications for amateur service club and military recreation station call signs should familiarize themselves with the Report and Order and the requirements of the statute.

An organization requesting designation as a "Club Station Call Sign Administrator" so that it can process applications for amateur service club and military recreation station call signs must provide information showing: (1) That it is an amateur radio organization;

(2) that it has tax-exempt status under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986; (3) that it will provide voluntary, uncompensated and unreimbursed services for processing applications for club and military recreation station call signs; (4) that it will submit the information to the FCC in an electronic batch file; and (5) that it will retain the application information for at least 15 months and make it available to the FCC upon request. The Club Station Call Sign Administrator may collect all necessary information in any manner of its choosing, including creating its own forms.

All requests must be signed by a responsible official of the organization and include the telephone number of a person familiar with the request. Interested organizations must file their request with the Federal Communications Commission, Wireless Telecommunications Bureau, Public Safety and Private Wireless Division, 445 Twelfth Street, SW, Room 4–C330, Washington, DC 20554, ATTENTION: CLUB STATION CALL SIGN ADMINISTRATOR. Failure to follow these filing procedures will result in the request being returned without consideration.

Qualified organizations that successfully complete a pilot autogrant batch filing project will be authorized as Club Station Call Sign Administrators to process applications for amateur service club and military recreation station call signs and submit the information to the FCC in an electronic batch file. The FCC will announce by public notice the names and addresses of Club Station Call Sign Administrators.
