SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This ICR relates to information collections established by the Deficit Reduction Act of 1984 (DRA), which created an Income and Eligibility Verification System

(IEVS) for the exchange of information among State agencies administering specific programs, and subsequent regulations. Programs covered by the IEVS include Temporary Assistance for Needy Families; Medicaid; Food Stamps; Supplemental Security Income; Unemployment Compensation; and any State program approved under Social Security Act (SSA) titles I, X, XIV, or XVI. Under the DRA, participating programs must exchange information to the extent that it is useful and productive in verifying eligibility and benefit amounts that assist the child support program and the Secretary of Health and Human Services in verifying eligibility and benefit amounts under SSA titles II and XVI. On September 27, 2006, the ETA issued a final rule regarding the Confidentiality and Disclosure of State Unemployment Compensation Information. See 71 FR 56830. This rule supports and expands upon the requirements of the Deficit Reduction Act of 1984 and subsequent regulatory changes. States are required to use data sharing agreements when making disclosures, to provide some assurance that recipients of disclosed information follow safeguards protecting confidentiality; to provide an enforcement mechanism against any recipients that breach those safeguards; and to show that they have complied with the rule. State Workforce agencies are required to provide notice to both employers and claimants about the uses of information they provide the IEVS. For additional substantive information about this ICR, see the related notice published in the Federal Register on March 14, 2013 (78 FR 16298).

In addition, notwithstanding any other provisions of law, no person shall generally be subject to penalty for failing to comply with a collection of information that does not display a valid Control Number. See 5 CFR 1320.5(a) and 1320.6. The DOL obtains OMB approval for this information collection under Control Number 1205–0238.

OMB authorization for an ICR cannot be for more than three (3) years without renewal, and the current approval for this collection is scheduled to expire on September 30, 2013. The DOL seeks to extend PRA authorization for this information collection for three (3) more years, without any change to existing requirements. It should also be noted that existing information collection requirements submitted to the OMB receive a month-to-month extension while they undergo review.
