

proceedings, applications for market-based rate authority, with accompanying tariffs (market-based rate tariffs). The proposed market-based rate tariffs provide for sales of capacity, energy, and/or ancillary services and the resale of transmission rights. The Applicants also requested certain waivers and authorizations. In particular, the Applicants requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR Part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liabilities by the Applicants. On December 19, 2001, the Commission issued an order (Order) that accepted the Applicants' applications in these proceedings, subject to any tariff condition adopted by the Commission in Docket No. ER01-118-000.

The Commission's December 19, 2001 Order granted the Applicants' request for blanket approval under Part 34, subject to the conditions found in Appendix A in Ordering Paragraphs (2), (3), and (5):

(2) Within 30 days of the date of this order, any person desiring to be heard or to protest the Commission's blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liabilities by the Applicants should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214.

(3) Absent a request to be heard within the period set forth in Ordering Paragraph (2) above, the Applicants are hereby authorized to issue securities and assume obligations and liabilities as guarantor, indorser, surety or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issue or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of the Applicants, compatible with the public interest, and reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

(5) The Commission reserves the right to modify this order to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued Commission approval of the Applicants' issuances of securities or assumptions of liabilities. * * *

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protests, as set forth above, is January 22, 2002.

Copies of the full text of the Order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Branch, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426. The Order may also be viewed on the on the web at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "RIMS"

[Docket No. CP02-48-000]

National Fuel Gas Supply Corporation and Tennessee Gas Pipeline Company; Notice of Application

December 27, 2001.

Take notice that on December 7, 2001, National Fuel Gas Supply Corporation (National Fuel), 10 Lafayette Square, Buffalo, New York 14203 and Tennessee Gas Pipeline Company (Tennessee), 9 E. Greenway Plaza, Houston, Texas 77048, filed a joint application pursuant to Section 7 of the Natural Gas Act and Part 157 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing a capacity lease between National Fuel and Tennessee and to abandon service currently provided by National Fuel to Tennessee all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection. This filing may also be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "RIMS" link, select "Docket#" and follow the instructions (call 202-208-2222 for assistance).

Specifically, National Fuel seeks to abandon the currently certificated transportation service it provides to Tennessee under Rate Schedule X-51 between Clarence, New York and Ellisburg, Pennsylvania. Further, National Fuel seeks authority to lease capacity to Tennessee on a firm basis for a term of ten years commencing November 1, 2002. The lease will include 90,000 Dth per day of capacity from Clarence to Ellisburg and 130,000 Dth per day from Ellisburg to Leidy, Pennsylvania. This leased capacity is part of Tennessee's Can-East Project (also known as the Leidy Extension) which is designed to provide firm transportation of gas from various points on Tennessee's system for delivery to Texas Eastern Transmission Company and Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation at Leidy.

Any questions regarding the application should be directed to National Fuel Gas Supply Corporation, 10 Lafayette Square, Buffalo, New York 14203 at 716-857-7949 or by E-mail at reitzd@natfuel.com and Marguerite N. Woung-Chapman, General Counsel, Tennessee Gas Pipeline Company, 9 E. Greenway Plaza, Suite 340, Houston, Texas 77048 at 832-676-7329 or by Email at marguerite.woung-chapman@elpaso.com.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a motion to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214 or 385.211) and the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All such motions to intervene or protests should be filed on or before January 17, 2002. All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a motion to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules. Comments, protests and interventions may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper. See, 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's web site under the "e-Filing" link.
