The proposed rule contained an incorrect Internet address and incomplete instructions on how to access the qualitative evaluation. This document corrects those errors.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On August 23, 2005, we published in the Federal Register (70 FR 49200–49207, Docket No. 04–083–1) a proposed rule in which we proposed to amend the regulations in 9 CFR part 94 by adding Argentina to the list of regions considered free of exotic Newcastle disease (END) and announced the availability of a qualitative evaluation regarding the END status of Argentina. The evaluation documents the factors that have led us to conclude that commercial poultry in Argentina are END-free. We are making the proposed rule and the qualitative evaluation available for public comment for 60 days. Comments must be received on or before October 24, 2005.

In the background portion of the proposed rule, we provided an Internet address where the evaluation could be viewed. This address was incorrect. The Internet address should have read: <http://www.aphis.usda.gov/vs/ncie/reg-request.html>. In addition, the instructions we provided for accessing the evaluation were incomplete. This document corrects those errors.

Correction

In FR Doc. 05–16689, published on August 23, 2005 (70 FR 49200–49207), make the following correction: On page 49205, first column, third full paragraph, in the first sentence, correct <http://www.aphis.usda.gov/vs/reg-request.html> by following the link for current requests and supporting documentation to read <http://www.aphis.usda.gov/vs/ncie/reg-request.html>. At the bottom of that Web site page, follow the link for “Information previously submitted by Regions requesting export approval and supporting documentation.” At the next screen, click on the triangle beside “Argentina/ Poultry Products/Exotic Newcastle Disease.” From that screen, you may click on the triangle beside “Response by APHIS” to view the qualitative evaluation and the triangle beside “Information supporting request” to view information provided by Argentine veterinary officials. You may also view the evaluation in our reading room (information on the location and hours of the reading room is provided under the heading ADDRESSES at the beginning of this document).’’

Done in Washington, DC, this 1st day of September 2005.
