DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Notice of Lodging of Proposed Consent Decree Under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act ("CERCLA")

Notice is hereby given that on June 18, 2012, a proposed Consent Decree in United States of America v. Government of the U.S. Virgin Islands, Civil Action No. 09-122 was lodged with the District Court of the Virgin Islands, Division of St. Thomas and St. John.

In this action, the United States sought recovery of response costs pursuant to Section 107(a) of CERCLA, for costs incurred related to the Tutu Wellfield Superfund Site in St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands. The consent decree requires the Government of the U.S. Virgin Islands to take over operation and maintenance of two existing groundwater pump-and-treat systems at the Tutu Wellfield Superfund Site one year prior to the date that it otherwise would be required to take over such operations.

The Department of Justice will receive for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of this publication comments relating to the Consent Decree. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General, Environment and Natural Resources Division, and either emailed to pubcomment-ees.enrd@usdoj.gov or mailed to P.O. Box 7611, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20044-7611, and should refer to United States of America v. Government of the U.S. Virgin Islands, D.J. Ref. 90-11-3-09838.

During the public comment period, the Consent Decree may also be examined on the following Department of Justice Web site, to http://www.usdoj.gov/enrd/Consent_Decrees.html. A copy of the Consent Decree may also be obtained by mail from the Consent Decree Library, P.O. Box 7611, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20044-7611 or by faxing or emailing a request to "Consent Decree Copy" (EESDCopy.ENRD@usdoj.gov), fax no. (202) 514-0097, phone confirmation number (202) 514-5271. If requesting a copy from the Consent Decree Library by mail, please enclose a check in the amount of $22.00 (25 cents per page reproduction cost) payable to the U.S. Treasury or, if requesting by email or fax, forward a check in that amount to the Consent Decree Library at the address given above.

National Institute of Corrections

Solicitation for a Cooperative Agreement: Training Curriculum Development for Probation and Parole Supervision Executives

AGENCY: National Institute of Corrections, U.S. Department of Justice.

ACTION: Solicitation for a cooperative agreement.

SUMMARY: The National Institute of Corrections (NIC) is soliciting proposals from organizations, groups, or individuals who would like to enter into a 12-month cooperative agreement with NIC to develop and pilot a training curriculum that prepares executives of probation and parole supervision agencies in their new position. This curriculum should be between 32-40 hours, include a blended approach to training using instructor-led face-to-face and Web-based instructional delivery strategies, and be based on NIC's Instructional Theory Into Practice (ITIP) model.

DATES: Applications must be received by 4:00 p.m. EDT on Friday, July 20, 2012.

ADDRESSES: Mailed applications must be sent to: Director, National Institute of Corrections, 320 First Street NW., Room 5002, Washington, DC 20534.

Applicants are encouraged to use Federal Express, UPS, or similar service to ensure delivery by the due date.

Hand delivered applications should be brought to 500 First Street NW., Washington, DC 20534. At the front desk, dial 7-3106, extension 0 for pickup.

Faxed applications will not be accepted. Electronic applications can only be submitted via www.grants.gov.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: A copy of this announcement and the required application forms can be downloaded from the NIC Web page at www.nicic.gov.

All technical or programmatic questions concerning this announcement should be directed to Robbye Braxton, Correctional Program Specialist, National Institute of Corrections at rbraxtonmintz@bop.gov or to Jim Cosby, Community Services Division Chief, at jcosby@bop.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The goal is to develop and pilot a training curriculum for probation and parole supervision executives that will describe their role and function as chief executive officer of a criminal justice agency. The curriculum should promote the use of evidence-based practices in planning and implementation, describe an executive's responsibility in the transition/reentry of offenders, clarify the collaborative role of an executive with other stakeholders in the criminal justice system, and examine the executive's leadership role in influencing an organizational culture that supports an agency's mission and goals.

Background: Generally an alternative to incarceration, probation is a court ordered period of correctional supervision in the community. Conversely, parole is a period of conditional supervised release in the community following a term of incarceration. There are many agencies that combine the functions of probation and parole community supervision in
