

Commission estimates that issuers will retain outside counsel to assist with filing approximately 1,000 event notices in each of the next three years. The Commission further believes that, for those 1,000 complex event notices in which issuers and obligated persons seek assistance from outside counsel, one-half of the burden of preparation of the event notices will be carried by issuers internally (four hours), and the other half of the burden will be carried by outside professionals retained by the issuer (four hours). The Commission further estimates that the average hourly cost for an issuer's use of outside counsel is $400 per hour. Therefore, the Commission estimates the average total annual cost incurred by issuers to retain outside counsel to assist in the evaluation and preparation of certain event notices will be $1,600,000.<sup>30</sup> Thus, the total estimated cost to issuers to comply with the rule is $19,254,000.<sup>31</sup>

Finally, based on recently obtained data provided by the MSRB, the Commission estimates that the MSRB will incur total annual costs of approximately $1,238,000 to operate the continuing disclosure service for the MSRB's Electronic Municipal Market Access ("EMMA") system, including hardware, software, and external third-party costs such as cloud service provider costs.

<sup>30</sup> 1,000 (estimated number of event notices requiring outside counsel) × 4 (estimated number of hours for outside attorney to assist in the preparation of such event notice) × $400 (hourly wage for an outside attorney) = $1,600,000. The Commission recognizes that the costs of retaining outside professionals may vary depending on the nature of the professional services, but for purposes of this PRA analysis we estimate that costs of outside counsel would be an average of $400 per hour.

<sup>31</sup> $17,654,000 (estimated annual cost for issuer's use of designated agent to submit filings) + $1,600,000 (estimated annual cost for issuers to employ outside counsel in the examination, preparation, and filing of certain event notices) = $19,254,000.
