

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATIONOffice of Special Education and Rehabilitative Services; Overview Information; Technology and Media Services for Individuals With Disabilities—National Center on Accessible Instructional Materials (AIM); Notice Inviting Applications for New Awards for Fiscal Year (FY) 2009

Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance (CFDA) Number: 84.327T.

DATES: Applications Available: June 3, 2009.

Deadline for Transmittal of Applications: July 6, 2009.

Deadline for Intergovernmental Review: September 1, 2009.

Full Text of AnnouncementI. Funding Opportunity Description

Purpose of Program: The purposes of the Technology and Media Services for Individuals with Disabilities program are to: (1) Improve results for children with disabilities by promoting the development, demonstration, and use of technology, (2) support educational media services activities designed to be of educational value in the classroom setting to children with disabilities, and (3) provide support for captioning and video description of educational materials that are appropriate for use in the classroom setting.

Priority: In accordance with 34 CFR 75.105(b)(2)(v), this priority is from allowable activities specified in the statute (see sections 674 and 681(d) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), 20 U.S.C. 1400 et seq.).

Absolute Priority: For FY 2009 and any subsequent year in which we make awards from the list of unfunded applicants from this competition, this priority is an absolute priority. Under 34 CFR 75.105(c)(3), we consider only applications that meet this priority.

This priority is:

Technology and Media Services for Individuals with Disabilities—National Center on Accessible Instructional Materials (AIM).

Background: IDEA requires that the individualized education program for each child with a disability be designed to enable the child to be involved in and make progress in the general education curriculum (20 U.S.C. 1414(d)(1)(A)(i)(II)(aa)). Some children with disabilities, however, experience a significant barrier to making progress in the general education curriculum because they cannot effectively utilize print instructional materials such as textbooks (Rose & Meyer, 2002; Rose, Meyer & Hitchcock, 2005; Stahl, 2007).

For example, studies show that, for many children with disabilities, a neurologically based reading dysfunction limits their ability to read and learn from print instructional materials (Shaywitz, 1998; 2002; 2005; 2006).

The 2004 amendments to IDEA required the Secretary to establish the National Instructional Materials Accessibility Standard (NIMAS) and required States to adopt NIMAS for the purpose of providing instructional materials in specialized formats in a timely manner for use in elementary and secondary schools by children who are blind or who have print disabilities (20 U.S.C. 1412(a)(23)(A)). The 2004 amendments also established the National Instructional Materials Access Center (NIMAC) as a national repository to receive and store NIMAS source files and make them available to States.

State educational agencies (SEAs) and local educational agencies (LEAs) now obtain NIMAS file sets directly from publishers or from NIMAC and convert those files into specialized formats for use by students who need accessible instructional materials (AIM). The files obtained from NIMAC may only be used for children with disabilities who are eligible under IDEA and meet the definition of blind or other persons with print disabilities in the Act to Provide Books for the Adult Blind (2 U.S.C. 135a), which establishes eligibility criteria for individuals served by the Library of Congress (LOC) regulations (36 CFR 701.6(b)(1)). These eligibility criteria cover individuals who are blind, have other visual disabilities, are unable to read or use standard print as a result of physical limitations, or have reading disabilities resulting from organic dysfunction. The regulations implementing Part B of IDEA require SEAs and LEAs to ensure that children with disabilities who need instructional materials in accessible formats, but are not included under the LOC definition of blind or other persons with print disabilities or who need materials that cannot be produced from NIMAS files obtained through NIMAC, receive those instructional materials in a timely manner (34 CFR 300.172(b)(3) and 300.210(b)(3)).

The Office of Special Education Programs (OSEP) funded the NIMAS TA Center (<http://www.nimas.cast.org>) in September 2004 to support the implementation of NIMAS-related requirements and to provide technical assistance (TA) and information to SEAs, LEAs, and other stakeholders in the preparation, delivery, and conversion of NIMAS file sets. However, the NIMAS TA Center targeted its efforts on addressing the need for AIM for children eligible under LOC regulations. A recent national survey of States found that the implementation of NIMAS is underway within States, but that States have encountered difficulty in developing and implementing unified distribution systems for AIM to serve the needs of all children with disabilities (Project Forum, 2007). SEAs and LEAs need sustained TA to provide high-quality materials in a timely manner and to improve their distribution systems because of the complexity of developing and implementing a unified distribution system that is responsive to IDEA requirements, the LOC criteria for eligibility, and section 121 of the Copyright Act.¹ State systems must address simultaneously the concerns of multiple participants in the system, including students and families, teachers, local schools, SEAs and LEAs, educational publishers, software developers, accessible media producers (AMPs), and distributors. Continued TA can help States develop efficient State distribution systems so that all children with disabilities receive AIM in a timely manner.

Priority: The purpose of this priority is to fund a cooperative agreement to support the establishment and operation of a national center on AIM (Center). The Center will provide TA to SEAs, LEAs, and other stakeholders: (1) To improve the implementation of NIMAS; and (2) to develop and implement unified distribution systems in SEAs that will improve the timely delivery of high-quality AIM to all children with disabilities who need instructional materials in accessible formats.

To be considered for funding under this absolute priority, applicants must meet the application requirements contained in this priority. Any project funded under this absolute priority also must meet the programmatic and administrative requirements specified in the priority.

Application Requirements

An applicant must include in its application—

(a) A logic model that depicts, at a minimum, the goals, activities, outputs, and outcomes of the proposed project. A logic model communicates how a project will achieve its outcomes and provides a framework for both the formative and summative evaluations of the project;

Note: The following Web site provides more information on logic models and lists multiple online resources: <http://www.cdc.gov/eval/resources.htm>.

(b) A plan to implement the activities described in the Project Activities section of this priority;

(c) A plan, linked to the proposed project's logic model, for a formative evaluation of the proposed project's activities. The plan must describe how the formative evaluation will use clear performance objectives to ensure continuous improvement in the operation of the proposed project, including objective measures of progress in implementing the project and ensuring the quality of products and services;

(d) A budget for a summative evaluation to be conducted by an independent third party;

(e) A budget for attendance at the following:

(1) A one and one-half day kick-off meeting to be held in Washington, DC, within four weeks after receipt of the award, and an annual planning meeting held in Washington, DC, with the OSEP Project Officer during each subsequent year of the project period.

(2) A three-day Project Directors' Conference in Washington, DC, during each year of the project period.

(3) A four-day Technical Assistance and Dissemination Conference in Washington, DC, during each year of the project period.

(4) A one-day trip annually to attend Department briefings, Department-sponsored conferences, and other meetings, as requested by OSEP; and

(f) A line item in the proposed budget for an annual set-aside of five percent of the grant amount to support emerging needs that are consistent with the proposed project's activities, as those needs are identified in consultation with OSEP.

Note: With approval from the OSEP Project Officer, the Center must reallocate any remaining funds from this annual set-aside no later than the end of the third quarter of each budget period.

Project Activities

To meet the requirements of this priority, the Center, at a minimum, must conduct the following activities:

Knowledge Development Activities

(a) Identify and document current approaches used by SEAs and LEAs, where appropriate, for developing and implementing efficient, unified distribution systems for the delivery of AIM to all children with disabilities who require instructional materials produced in accessible formats. This activity should occur during the first year of the project.

(b) Describe in detail the necessary components of efficient, unified distribution systems for the delivery of AIM in a timely manner. These components must include but are not limited to the following:

(1) Implementation of tracking systems that provide for digital rights management and measure timely delivery.

(2) Coordination with textbook adoption authorities and assistive technology projects within SEAs.

(3) Utilization of existing general education distribution systems, resource centers, and professional development systems. This knowledge development activity should occur during the first and second years of the project.

Technical Assistance and Dissemination Activities

(a) Work directly with SEAs to ensure that distribution systems are high-quality and deliver AIM in a timely manner to children with disabilities. To address this requirement the Center must—

(1) Work directly with a minimum of ten States to assist the SEAs in developing and implementing a plan to develop a unified distribution system or improve their existing distribution system for AIM;

(2) Develop and coordinate a national TA network comprised of a cadre of experts that the Center will use to provide TA to SEAs, LEAs, and other stakeholders to develop a unified distribution system or improve their existing State distribution systems for the delivery of AIM to children with disabilities; and

(3) Disseminate information to SEAs and LEAs about improving the timely delivery of AIM and increasing the quantity and improving the quality of commercially available AIM through their print instructional materials adoption processes, procurement contracts, or other practices or instruments used for purchase of print instructional materials (34 CFR 300.172(c)).

(4) Disseminate information to SEAs and LEAs on developing and implementing a unified distribution system that is responsive to IDEA requirements, the LOC criteria for eligibility, and section 121 of the Copyright Act.

(b) Provide a continuum of general TA and dissemination (TA&D) activities,

(e.g., managing Web sites, listservs, and communities of practice, and holding training institutes) to assist SEAs—

(1) In developing and implementing quality indicators of their distribution systems that: Define high-quality AIM, describe the State definition of “timely manner” (34 CFR 300.172(a)(2)) and use that definition to assess whether children who need AIM receive these materials in a timely manner, identify elements that support an efficient flow of materials in the distribution system, and use effective protocols for digital rights management;

(2) In providing exemplars and other information to publishers, AMPs, and other stakeholders on the use of NIMAS (e.g., in support for Scalable Vector Graphics (SVG) and Mathematical Markup Language (MathML)). The following Web sites provide information on SVG and MathML: <http://www.w3.org/Graphics/SVG> and www.w3.org/Math; and

(3) To the maximum extent possible, in meeting their obligation to work collaboratively with the State agency responsible for assistive technology programs (34 CFR 300.172(d); 20 U.S.C. 1412(a)(23)(D)).

(c) Prepare and disseminate reports, documents, practice guides, and other materials on the implementation of State distribution systems for the delivery of AIM, the quality indicators related to an effective distribution system, the use of AIM, and related topics, as requested by OSEP, for specific audiences, including parents, teachers, textbook selection committees, and SEA administrators.

(d) Maintain a Web site that meets government or industry-recognized standards for accessibility and that links to the Web site operated by the Technical Assistance Coordination Center (TACC).

Leadership and Coordination Activities

(a) On an annual basis, compile and share data, in collaboration with other currently funded OSEP centers, on the implementation of NIMAS. To complete this activity, the Center must—

(1) Review and summarize NIMAS-related data from sources such as IDEA State Annual Performance Reports (APRs) and the updated State Performance Plans (SPPs). The following Web site provides more information on APRs and SPPs: <http://www.rfcnetwork.org/content/view/409/47/>;

(2) Prepare a summary report annually on the status of the implementation of NIMAS and disseminate the findings of the

summary report to OSEP, SEAs, LEAs, and other stakeholders; and

(3) Provide recommendations to OSEP on the most meaningful and useful ways to analyze and aggregate the data reported by States on IDEA Part B indicators relevant to NIMAS implementation at the national level. The following Web site provides more information on the SEAs' adoption of NIMAS: <http://www.ed.gov/policy/speced/guid/idea/monitor/nimac.html>.

(b) Establish and maintain an advisory committee to review the activities and outcomes of the Center and provide programmatic support and advice throughout the project period. At a minimum, the advisory committee must meet on an annual basis and must include: SEA and LEA personnel involved with the distribution of AIM, textbook adoption personnel, individuals with disabilities or parents of children with disabilities, OSEP-funded technology grants that relate to NIMAS and that improve results for children with disabilities, and other stakeholders and project directors of Department-funded centers that relate to the implementation of NIMAS requirements. The Center must submit the names of the proposed members of the advisory committee to OSEP for approval within eight weeks after receipt of the award.

(c) Communicate and collaborate with currently funded OSEP projects including NIMAC; Bookshare.org for Education; Recording for the Blind & Dyslexic; the NIMAS center (which OSEP intends to fund in FY 2009); and TACC. This collaboration could include the joint development of products, the coordination of TA services, and the planning and carrying out of TA meetings and events, including the convening of an annual meeting of these projects to ensure a well-designed national distribution system for SEAs and LEAs and to reduce duplication of effort and improve the delivery time for specialized formats.

(d) Communicate and collaborate with postsecondary groups to help facilitate coordinated efforts between the K-12 and postsecondary AIM distribution systems, as appropriate.

(e) Participate in, organize, or facilitate, as directed by OSEP, communities of practice (<http://www.tacommunities.org/>) that are aligned with the Center's objectives as a way to support discussions and collaboration among key stakeholders.

(f) Prior to developing any new product, whether paper or electronic, submit to the OSEP Project Officer and the Proposed Product Advisory Board at OSEP's TACC for approval, a proposal describing the content and purpose of the product.

(g) Coordinate with the National Dissemination Center for Individuals with Disabilities to develop an efficient and high-quality dissemination strategy that reaches broad audiences. The Center must report to the OSEP Project Officer the outcomes of these coordination efforts.

(h) Contribute, on an ongoing basis, updated information on the Center's services to OSEP's Technical Assistance and Dissemination Matrix (<http://matrix.rfncnetwork.org/>), which provides current information on Department-funded TA services to a range of stakeholders.

(i) Conduct formative and summative evaluations of the Center that are aligned with the evaluation plan. These evaluations must examine the outcomes or impact of the Center's activities in order to assess the effectiveness of those activities. These evaluations will be reported to OSEP at least annually in the case of the formative evaluation and at the end of the project period for the summative evaluation.

(j) Maintain ongoing communication with the OSEP Project Officer through monthly phone conversations and e-mail communication. Fourth and Fifth Years of the Project: In deciding whether to continue funding the Center for the fourth and fifth years, the Secretary will consider the requirements of 34 CFR 75.253(a), and in addition—

(a) The recommendation of a review team consisting of experts selected by the Secretary. This review will be conducted during a one-day meeting in Washington, DC, that will be held during the last half of the second year of the project period.

(b) The timeliness and effectiveness with which all requirements of the negotiated cooperative agreement have been or are being met by the Center; and

(c) The quality, relevance, and usefulness of the Center's activities and products, and the degree to which the Center's activities and products have contributed to the development and improvement of State distribution systems for the efficient delivery of AIM for children with disabilities.

V. Application Review Information

1. Selection Criteria: The selection criteria for this competition are from 34 CFR 75.210 and are listed in the application package.

2. Review and Selection Process: In the past, the Department has had difficulty finding peer reviewers for certain competitions because so many individuals who are eligible to serve as peer reviewers have conflicts of interest. The Standing Panel requirements under IDEA also have placed additional constraints on the availability of reviewers. Therefore, the Department has determined that, for some discretionary grant competitions, applications may be separated into two or more groups and ranked and selected for funding within the specific groups. This procedure will make it easier for the Department to find peer reviewers by ensuring that greater numbers of individuals who are eligible to serve as reviewers for any particular group of applicants will not have conflicts of interest. It also will increase the quality, independence, and fairness of the review process while permitting panel members to review applications under discretionary grant competitions for which they also have submitted applications. However, if the Department decides to select an equal number of applications in each group for funding, this may result in different cut-off points for fundable applications in each group.

VI. Award Administration Information

1. Award Notices: If your application is successful, we notify your U.S. Representative and U.S. Senators and send you a Grant Award Notification (GAN). We may notify you informally, also.

If your application is not evaluated or not selected for funding, we notify you.

2. Administrative and National Policy Requirements: We identify administrative and national policy requirements in the application package and reference these and other requirements in the Applicable Regulations section of this notice.

We reference the regulations outlining the terms and conditions of an award in the Applicable Regulations section of this notice and include these and other specific conditions in the GAN. The GAN also incorporates your approved application as part of your binding commitments under the grant.

3. Reporting: At the end of your project period, you must submit a final performance report, including financial information, as directed by the Secretary. If you receive a multi-year award, you must submit an annual performance report that provides the most current performance and financial expenditure information as directed by the Secretary under 34 CFR 75.118. The Secretary may also require more frequent performance reports under 34 CFR 75.720(c). For specific requirements on reporting, please go to <http://www.ed.gov/fund/grant/apply/appforms/appforms.html>.

4. Performance Measures: Under the Government Performance and Results Act of 1993 (GPRA), the Department has established a set of performance measures, including long-term measures, that are designed to yield information on various aspects of the effectiveness and quality of the Technology and Media Services for Individuals with Disabilities program. These measures focus on the extent to which projects provide high-quality products and services, are relevant to improving outcomes for children with disabilities, and contribute to improving outcomes for children with disabilities. We will collect data on these measures from the project funded under this competition.

The grantee will be required to report information on its project's performance in annual reports to the Department (34 CFR 75.590).

Absolute Priority: For FY 2009 and any subsequent year in which we make awards from the list of unfunded applicants from this competition, this priority is an absolute priority. Under 34 CFR 75.105(c)(3) we consider only applications that meet this priority.

This priority is:

Technology and Media Services for Individuals With Disabilities—NIMAS.

Background: The National

Instructional Materials Accessibility Standard (NIMAS) was established by the Secretary of Education, pursuant to sections 612(a)(23)(A) and 674(e)(4) of IDEA, for publishers to create electronic files that can be used by States and accessible media producers (AMPs) to produce accessible versions of print instructional materials. Publishers must apply NIMAS in the production of electronic file sets for all print instructional materials, as defined in section 674(e)(3)(C) of IDEA (20 U.S.C. 1474(e)(3)(C)), published after July 19, 2006. The purpose of this requirement is to ensure that publishers use a common standard to create electronic files that facilitate the production of accurate and reliable accessible versions of instructional materials. The goal is to help increase the quality, availability, and timely delivery of print instructional materials in accessible formats to children in elementary and secondary schools who are blind or who have print disabilities.

The Department of Education (Department) funded the NIMAS Development Center in September 2004 and charged it with providing recommendations to the Department on revisions and updates to the technical specifications of NIMAS. These updates were needed to ensure that NIMAS remained current with technological advances, was consistent with updates to the Digital Accessible Information System (DAISY) specification (DAISY is a worldwide standard for digital talking books), and addressed concerns that were identified during the implementation of NIMAS. The NIMAS Development Center also has developed technical clarification documents, conducted training and presentations, and contributed to the development of production and workflow models for publishers, distributors, AMPs, States, and local educational agencies (LEAs).
