

1. Systematic methods for implementing “Weight of Evidence” analysis that consider both quantitative and qualitative data.

2. Approaches for ensuring “Data Quality.”

3. The consideration of “uncertainty” in the scientific assessment process.

While the focus of this public meeting is on the three topics noted in this unit, comments on all aspects of the materials previously provided to the public will be accepted. The agencies’ interim approach document entitled, “Interagency Approach for Implementation of the National Academy of Sciences Report” dated November 13, 2013, and the presentation materials from the November 2013 stakeholder workshop are available at the following Web site: <http://www.epa.gov/oppfead1/endoranger/2013/nas.html>.

In addition to the scientific and technical information presented by stakeholders, representatives from Federal agencies will join the dialogue to ask clarifying questions of the presenters and to respond to questions regarding the pesticide registration process and Endangered Species Act consultation. The agencies see this forum as an integral component of the stakeholder engagement process developed for pesticide consultations and contributes to the agencies’ commitment to adapt and refine the interim approaches as we progress through the initial consultations.

Information Session; Stakeholder Input on Implementation of the Water Infrastructure Finance and Innovation Act of 2014

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) is announcing plans to hold an information and stakeholder input session on September 22, 2014 in New York City, New York to discuss implementation of the “Water Infrastructure Finance and Innovation Act of 2014” (WIFIA). A second session will be held on September 23, 2014 in New York City if registration for the first day exceeds room capacity. Additional information and stakeholder input sessions will be held in locations around the country through December, 2014. Locations and dates for the additional sessions will be announced when they become available.

WIFIA is an innovative financing mechanism for water-related infrastructure of national or regional significance. It was signed into law on June 11, 2014 as Public Law 113-121. EPA will be providing an overview of the statute, assistance options and terms, and ideas for implementing the program. EPA would like participants to discuss project ideas and potential selection criteria; opportunities, challenges, and questions about implementation; and future stakeholder engagement. The intended audience is municipal, state, and regional utility decision makers; private finance sector representatives; and other interested organizations and parties.

DATES: The session will be held on September 22, 2014, with a possible additional session on September 23, 2014, if necessary.

ADDRESSES: The session will be held at: EPA Region 2, Room 27A, 27th Floor, 290 Broadway, New York City, NY 10007.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: For further information about this notice, including registration information, contact Jordan Dorfman, EPA Headquarters, Office of Water, Office of Wastewater Management at tel.: 202-564-0614 or email: WIFIA@epa.gov. Members of the public are invited to participate in the session as capacity allows.

Authority: Water Infrastructure Finance and Innovation Act, Public Law 113-121.

Dated: September 10, 2014.

Andrew D. Sawyers,

Director, Office of Wastewater Management.
