Notification of Meeting and Public Comment Period; Open Meetings

Pursuant to the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA), Public Law 92-463, we now give notice that the National Environmental Justice Advisory Council (NEJAC), along with the various subcommittees, will meet on the dates and times described below. All times noted are Eastern Standard Time. All meetings are open to the public. Due to limited space, seating at the NEJAC meeting will be on a first-come basis. Documents that are the subject of NEJAC reviews are normally available from the originating EPA office and are not available from the NEJAC. The NEJAC and the subcommittee meetings will take place at the Renaissance Madison Hotel, 515 Madison Street, Seattle, WA 98104. The meeting dates are as follows: December 3, 2001 through December 6, 2001. This is the fourth in a series of focused policy issue meetings for the NEJAC. To help prepare for this specific focused policy issue meeting the following background information is provided:

Request and Policy Issue

The Charter for the NEJAC states that the advisory committee shall provide independent advice to the Administrator on areas that may include, among other things, "the direction, criteria, scope, and adequacy of the EPA's scientific research and demonstration projects" relating to environment justice. In order to provide such independent advice, the Agency requests that the NEJAC convene a focused, issue-oriented public meeting in Seattle, WA. The meeting shall be used to receive comments on, discuss, and analyze issues related to water quality, fish consumption and environmental justice. The Agency, furthermore, requests that the NEJAC produce a comprehensive report on the differing views, interests, concerns, and perspectives expressed by the stakeholder participants on the focused policy issue, and provide advice and recommendations for the Agency's review and consideration. In order to fulfill this charge, the NEJAC is being asked to discuss and provide recommendations regarding the following broad public policy question:

What is the relationship between water quality, fish consumption, and environmental justice?

NEJAC will examine this issue with respect to research methodologies, risk assessment and risk management approaches, remediation and prevention strategies, and the utilization of statutory authorities and implementing regulations which are designed to protect the health and safety of all people, including minority, low-income and tribal communities

Meeting

Registration for the NEJAC meeting will begin on Monday, December 3, 2001 at 12 noon. The NEJAC will convene Monday, December 3, 2001, from 2-6 p.m. On Monday from 4 p.m.-6 p.m. the Seattle community will conduct a "virtual" tour dialogue with the NEJAC. Structured Presentations for the NEJAC Executive Council will take place during this "virtual" tour dialogue. The meeting will be conducted in a round table fashion, except during the public comment session. A public comment period dedicated to the focused policy issue is scheduled for Tuesday evening, December 4, 2001, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. General environmental justice public comment issues will be heard on Tuesday evening, following the focus policy public comment issues.
