SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: DOL, as part of continuing efforts to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, conducts a pre-clearance consultation program to provide the general public and Federal agencies an opportunity to comment on proposed and/or continuing collections of information before submitting them to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for final approval. This program helps to ensure requested data can be provided in the desired format, reporting burden (time and financial resources) is minimized, collection instruments are clearly understood, and the impact of collection requirements can be properly assessed.

Section 303(a)(1) of the Social Security Act (SSA) requires a state's unemployment insurance (UI) law to include provision for "[s]uch methods of administration . . . as are found by the Secretary of Labor to be reasonably calculated to insure full payment of unemployment compensation when due. . . ." Section 303(a)(5) of the SSA further requires a state's UI law to include provision for "[e]xpenditure of all money withdrawn from an unemployment fund of such State, in the payment of unemployment compensation. . . ." Section 3304(a)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) of 1954 provides that "all money withdrawn from the unemployment fund of the State shall be used solely in the payment of unemployment compensation. . . ."

ETA has interpreted these sections of federal law in Section 7511, Part V, of the Employment Security Manual to require a state's UI law to include provisions for such methods of administration as are, within reason, calculated to: (1) Detect benefits paid through error by the State Workforce Agency (SWA) or through willful misrepresentation or error by the claimant or others; (2) deter claimants from obtaining benefits through willful misrepresentation; and (3) recover benefits overpaid. ETA uses the Overpayment Detection and Recovery Activities report, referred to as the ETA 227, to determine whether SWAs meet these requirements. Section 303(a)(6) of the SSA requires a state's UI law to include provision for making such reports as the Secretary of Labor may require.

The ETA 227 contains data on the number and amounts of fraud and non-fraud overpayments established, the methods by which states detected overpayments, the amounts and methods by which states collected overpayments, the amounts of overpayments waived and written off, the accounts receivable for outstanding overpayments, and data on criminal/civil actions to collect overpayments. Each of the 53 SWAs gather this data and report it to DOL following the end of each calendar quarter. The overall effectiveness of SWAs' UI integrity efforts can be determined by examining and analyzing the data. SWA's also use these data as a management tool for effective UI program administration.

Section 303(a)(1), SSA, Section 303(a)(5), SSA, Section 303 (a)(6), SSA, and Section 3304(a)(4), IRC authorize this information collection.
