

On April 17, 2025, the private parties filed a joint motion to terminate the investigation in its entirety based on settlement due to a patent license agreement and arbitration agreement. On April 28, 2025, the Commission investigative attorney filed a response in support of the motion.

On May 8, 2025, the ALJ issued the subject ID (Order No. 66), which grants the joint motion. The ID finds that the motion complies with Commission Rule 210.21(b) (19 CFR 210.21(b)). ID at 2–3.

No petitions for Commission review of the subject ID were filed.

The Commission has determined not to review the subject ID. The Commission notes that the motion also complies with Commission Rule 210.21(d) (19 CFR 210.21(d)) concerning arbitration agreements. The investigation is terminated.

The Commission vote for this determination took place on May 28, 2025.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), and in Part 210 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR part 210).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: May 29, 2025.

Lisa Barton,

Secretary to the Commission.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation Nos. 701–TA–767 and 731–TA–1750 (Preliminary)]

L-lysine From China; Institution of Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Investigations; Scheduling of Preliminary Phase Investigations

AGENCY: United States International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Commission hereby gives notice of the institution of investigations and commencement of preliminary phase antidumping and countervailing duty Investigation Nos. 701–TA–767 and 731–TA–1750 (Preliminary) pursuant to the Tariff Act of 1930 (“the Act”) to determine whether there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured or threatened with material injury, or the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded, by reason of imports of L-lysine from China, provided for in subheading 2922.41.0090 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States, that are alleged to be sold in the United States at less than fair value and subsidized by the government of China. Unless the Department of Commerce (“Commerce”) extends the time for initiation, the Commission must reach a preliminary determination in antidumping and countervailing duty investigations in 45 days, or in this case by July 14, 2025. The Commission's views must be transmitted to Commerce within five business days thereafter, or by July 21, 2025.

DATES: May 28, 2025.

Hearing-impaired persons can obtain information on this matter by contacting the Commission's TDD terminal on 202–205–1810. Persons with mobility impairments who will need special assistance in gaining access to the Commission should contact the Office of the Secretary at 202–205–2000. General information concerning the Commission may also be obtained by accessing its internet server (<https://www.usitc.gov>). The public record for these investigations may be viewed on the Commission's electronic docket (EDIS) at <https://edis.usitc.gov>.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background.—These investigations are being instituted, pursuant to sections 703(a) and 733(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1671b(a) and 1673b(a)), in response to petitions filed on May 28, 2025, by the Lysine Fair Trade Coalition and its individual members, Archer Daniels Midland Company (Decatur, Illinois), CJ Bio America, Inc. (Fort Dodge, Iowa), and Evonik Corporation (Blair, Nebraska).

For further information concerning the conduct of these investigations and rules of general application, consult the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, part 201, subparts A and B (19 CFR part 201), and part 207, subparts A and B (19 CFR part 207).

Participation in the investigations and public service list.—Persons (other than petitioners) wishing to participate in the investigations as parties must file an entry of appearance with the Secretary to the Commission, as provided in §§ 201.11 and 207.10 of the Commission's rules, not later than seven days after publication of this notice in the Federal Register. Industrial users and (if the merchandise under investigation is sold at the retail level) representative consumer organizations have the right to appear as parties in Commission antidumping duty and countervailing duty investigations. The Secretary will prepare a public service list containing the names and addresses of all persons, or their representatives, who are parties to these investigations upon the expiration of the period for filing entries of appearance.

Limited disclosure of business proprietary information (BPI) under an administrative protective order (APO) and BPI service list.—Pursuant to § 207.7(a) of the Commission's rules, the Secretary will make BPI gathered in these investigations available to authorized applicants representing interested parties (as defined in 19 U.S.C. 1677(9)) who are parties to the investigations under the APO issued in the investigations, provided that the application is made not later than seven days after the publication of this notice in the Federal Register. A separate service list will be maintained by the Secretary for those parties authorized to receive BPI under the APO.

Conference.—The Office of Investigations will hold a staff conference in connection with the preliminary phase of these investigations beginning at 9:30 a.m. on Wednesday, June 18, 2025. Requests to appear at the conference should be emailed to preliminaryconferences@usitc.gov (DO NOT FILE ON EDIS) on or before noon on Monday, June 16, 2025. Please provide an email address for each conference participant in the email. Information on conference procedures, format, and participation, including guidance for requests to appear as a witness via videoconference, will be available on the Commission's Public Calendar (Calendar (USITC) | United States International Trade Commission). A nonparty who has testimony that may aid the Commission's deliberations may request permission to participate by submitting a short statement.

Please note the Secretary's Office will accept only electronic filings during this time. Filings must be made through the Commission's Electronic Document Information System (EDIS, <https://edis.usitc.gov>). No in-person paper-based filings or paper copies of any electronic filings will be accepted until further notice.

Written submissions.—As provided in §§ 201.8 and 207.15 of the Commission's rules, any person may submit to the Commission on or before 5:15 p.m. on June 24, 2025, a written brief containing information and arguments pertinent to the subject matter of the investigations. Parties shall file written testimony and supplementary material in connection with their presentation at the conference no later than 4 p.m. on June 17, 2025. All written submissions must conform with the provisions of § 201.8 of the Commission's rules; any submissions that contain BPI must also conform with the requirements of §§ 201.6, 207.3, and 207.7 of the Commission's rules. The Commission's Handbook on Filing Procedures, available on the Commission's website at https://www.usitc.gov/documents/handbook_on_filing_procedures.pdf, elaborates upon the Commission's procedures with respect to filings.

In accordance with §§ 201.16(c) and 207.3 of the rules, each document filed by a party to the investigations must be served on all other parties to the investigations (as identified by either the public or BPI service list), and a certificate of service must be timely filed. The Secretary will not accept a document for filing without a certificate of service.

Certification.—Pursuant to § 207.3 of the Commission's rules, any person submitting information to the Commission in connection with these investigations must certify that the information is accurate and complete to the best of the submitter's knowledge. In making the certification, the submitter will acknowledge that any information that it submits to the Commission during these investigations may be disclosed to and used: (i) by the Commission, its employees and Offices, and contract personnel (a) for developing or maintaining the records of these or related investigations or reviews, or (b) in internal investigations, audits, reviews, and evaluations relating to the programs, personnel, and operations of the Commission including under 5 U.S.C. Appendix 3; or (ii) by U.S. government employees and contract personnel, solely for cybersecurity purposes. All contract personnel will sign appropriate nondisclosure agreements.

Authority: These investigations are being conducted under authority of title VII of the Tariff Act of 1930; this notice is published pursuant to § 207.12 of the Commission's rules.

By order of the Commission.

Issued: May 29, 2025.

Lisa Barton,

Secretary to the Commission.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation No. 337–TA–1397]

Certain Cellular Base Station Communication Equipment, Components Thereof, and Products Containing Same; Notice of Commission Decision Not To Review an Initial Determination Terminating the Investigation Based on Settlement; Termination of Investigation

AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission (the “Commission”) has determined not to review an initial determination (“ID”) (Order No. 24) of the presiding Administrative Law Judge (“ALJ”) terminating the investigation based on settlement. The investigation is terminated.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Houda Morad, Office of the General Counsel, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street SW, Washington, DC 20436, telephone (202) 708–4716. Copies of non-confidential documents filed in connection with this investigation may be viewed on the Commission's electronic docket system (“EDIS”) at <https://edis.usitc.gov>. For help accessing EDIS, please email EDIS3Help@usitc.gov. General information concerning the Commission may also be obtained by accessing its internet server at <https://www.usitc.gov>. Hearing-impaired persons are advised that information on this matter can be obtained by contacting the Commission's TDD terminal, telephone (202) 205–1810.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On April 16, 2024, the Commission instituted this investigation based on a complaint filed by Motorola Mobility LLC (“Motorola”) of Chicago, Illinois. 89 FR 26918–19 (Apr. 16, 2024). The complaint, as supplemented, alleges violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. 1337 (“section 337”) based upon the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain cellular base station communication equipment, components thereof, and products containing same, by reason of the infringement of claims 10–18 of U.S. Patent No. 11,076,304 (“the ‘304 patent”) and claims 15–20 of U.S. Patent No. 11,711,706 (“the ‘706 patent”). Id. The Commission's notice of investigation named the following respondents: Ericsson AB and Telefonaktiebolaget LM Ericsson, both of Stockholm, Sweden, and Ericsson Inc. of Plano, Texas (collectively, “Ericsson”). Id. The Office of Unfair Import Investigations (“OUII”) was also named as a party in this investigation. Id.

On November 15, 2024, the Commission partially terminated the investigation as to claims 3, 6–9, 12–14, and 18 of the ‘304 patent and claims 3, 7–14, and 17–18 of the ‘706 patent. Order No. 15 (Oct. 23, 2024), unreviewed by Comm’n Notice (Nov. 15, 2024).

On December 23, 2024, the Commission issued a notice determining not to review an ID (Order No. 18) granting Motorola's motion for summary determination that the economic prong of the domestic industry requirement is satisfied with respect to the ‘304 and ‘706 patents, with the proviso that the Commission ultimately finds the technical prong likewise satisfied as to those patents. Order No. 18 (Nov. 25, 2024), unreviewed by Comm’n Notice (Dec. 23, 2024).

On April 18, 2025, Motorola and Ericsson (“collectively, the private parties”) filed a joint motion (“Motion”) to terminate the investigation based on settlement. On April 30, 2025, OUII filed a response in support of the motion provided that the private parties file a properly redacted public version of their agreements.

On May 5, 2025, the ALJ issued an order (Order No. 23) requesting further submissions regarding the public version of the private parties' agreements. See Order No. 23 (May 5, 2025). The ALJ directed the private parties to provide their supplemental submissions by email. Id.

On May 9, 2025, the ALJ issued the subject ID (Order No. 24) granting the Motion. The ID finds that the Motion complies with the requirements of Commission Rule 210.21(b)(1) (19 CFR 210.21(b)(1)). ID at 1–2. The ID notes that the private parties certify that “other than the two agreements filed with the Commission, ‘there are no other agreements, written or oral, express or implied between the private parties concerning the subject matter of this Investigation.’” Id. at 2. Additionally, the ID finds that “[the public version of the agreements] contain redactions only for information that qualifies as confidential business information under Commission Rule 201.6(a)” (19 CFR 201.6(a)). The ID also finds that “termination of this investigation by settlement will not
