

program (State sandbox).³⁹ The CFPB is interested in entering into agreements with State authorities that operate or plan to operate a State sandbox, which may include a process to receive compliance assistance under this Policy in a coordinated manner with assistance from the State sandbox.

Furthermore, the CFPB is interested in coordinating with other regulators more generally regarding this Policy. To this end, the CFPB intends to enter into agreements whenever practicable to coordinate compliance assistance under the Policy with assistance offered by State, Federal, or international regulators.

G. Disclosure of Information Relating to Approvals

Public disclosure of information regarding approvals under this Policy is governed by applicable law, including the CFPA,⁴⁰ the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA),⁴¹ and the CFPB's Rule on Disclosure of Records and Information (Disclosure Rule).⁴² The Disclosure Rule generally prohibits the CFPB from disclosing confidential information,⁴³ and defines confidential information to include information that may be exempt from disclosure under the FOIA⁴⁴—including Exemption 4 regarding trade secrets and confidential commercial or financial information that is privileged or confidential.⁴⁵ The Disclosure Rule also defines business information as commercial or financial information obtained by the CFPB from a submitter that may be protected from disclosure under Exemption 4 of FOIA, and generally provides that such business information shall not be disclosed pursuant to a FOIA request except in accordance with section 1070.20 of the rule.⁴⁶

Consistent with applicable law, the CFPB will publish on its website its final disposition of applications for approvals, as well as the application previously published on regulations.gov. If the CFPB decides to grant an application, it intends to publish an order regarding the decision on its website as soon as practicable. The CFPB expects that the order will overlap with the CAST provided to the recipient, but will contain other information and will not include information protected from public disclosure under applicable law. The CFPB expects the order to include: (i) the identity of the recipient; (ii) the described aspects of the product or service to which the approval applies; (iii) the approval's specified duration, basis, and legal authority; and (iv) in appropriate cases, a version of the summary of the application.⁴⁷ The CFPB also intends to publish denials of applications on its website, including an explanation of why the application was denied in whole or in part.⁴⁸

Where information submitted to the CFPB is both customarily and actually treated as private by the submitter, the CFPB intends to treat it as confidential in accordance with the Disclosure Rule.⁴⁹ The CFPB anticipates that much of the information submitted by applicants in their applications, and by recipients while operating pursuant to a CAST, will qualify as confidential information under the Disclosure Rule.⁵⁰

Disclosure to other Federal and State agencies of information or data provided to the CFPB under the Policy is governed by applicable law, including the CFPA⁵¹ and the Disclosure Rule.

To the extent the CFPB wishes to publicly disclose non-confidential information regarding approvals, the CFPB intends to include the terms of such disclosure in the CAST. The CFPB intends to draft the CAST in a manner such that confidential information is not disclosed. Consistent with applicable law and its own rules, the CFPB does not intend to publicly disclose any information that would conflict with consumers' privacy interests.
